Introduction

A Covenant That Changed My Life

There was a time in my life when I had nothing but a calling, a hunger for God, and 25 pence to my name. I was homeless in London, surrounded by uncertainty, yet something in my spirit knew that if I could find the key—just one divine principle—I could unlock the future God had promised me. That key, I soon discovered, was tithing.

At the time, 25p may have seemed insignificant to others. But to me, it was sacred. It represented my entire increase. So I lifted it up to God, named it, and spoke life over it—believing it would open a door. And it did. That one act became the beginning of a supernatural journey that transformed my life completely. From sleeping in train stations to owning businesses, marrying the woman of my prayers, raising a blessed family, and shepherding a global ministry—it all began with the tithe.

But that was just the start.

As I continued walking with God, I learned that the tithe was not the only key. There were other divine instructions—first fruits that set the pace for each new season, and offerings that activated specific breakthroughs. What I thought was one key, turned out to be part of an entire spiritual system of covenant prosperity. A cycle of obedience that unlocks overflow, breaks curses, and silences the devourer.

Sadly, many believers today are sincere, but sincerely frustrated. They tithe, but nothing seems to change. They give offerings, but see no harvest. They fast and pray, but still feel blocked financially. Why? Because they've never been taught the spiritual structure that governs supernatural increase. They've mixed up tithe, offering, and first fruits, or treated them casually, not covenantally.

That's why I wrote this book.

This is not just another book about money or giving. It is a revelatory guide—born from my life, tested by fire, and proven through thousands of testimonies. This book will show you how to:

- Distinguish tithes from offerings and first fruits.
- Activate your spiritual harvest cycles.
- Speak the right confessions that give life to your giving.
- Sow into good ground and break the curse of stagnation.
- Tap into divine protection, favor, and generational abundance.

Covenant Wealth

You will discover why tithing isn't just about obedience—it's about alignment. Why first fruits are not optional—they're prophetic. And why offerings must be intentional—not impulsive. This is not about obligation—it's about revelation.

Whether you are just beginning your journey of faith or have been walking with God for years, this book will expose the areas where the enemy may have delayed your financial destiny—and it will give you the prophetic tools to fight back and recover all.

I don't just teach this. I live it. And every page of this book carries that anointing.

Now, let us begin this covenant journey. As you read, I pray that something deep within you will awaken—that your eyes will open, and that the heavens over your life will never again be shut.

This is your time. This is your key. Welcome to the blessing.

Author & Master Prophet

Why the Blessing of God Still Matters

“The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and He addeth no sorrow with it.”

—Proverbs 10:22

God’s Original Design: Eden, Not Egypt

Before there were systems of trade, before banks were created, before the first coins were ever minted, there was the blessing of the Lord. It was God’s original plan. His first divine transaction with mankind wasn’t a law, a judgment, or a curse—it was a blessing.

When God created Adam and Eve, the very first words He spoke over them were not commands or warnings. He didn’t begin by saying, “Do not touch.” The first words that ever came out of God’s mouth toward mankind were words of blessing and dominion.

Covenant Wealth

“And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion...”

—Genesis 1:28

This is where everything begins. The blessing was not a side benefit of walking with God. It was the core identity of being made in His image. God’s plan was never for His people to survive off the crumbs of life. It was for them to rule, multiply, increase, and overflow.

The Garden of Eden was a prophetic symbol of what God’s economy looks like—full provision, divine partnership, and supernatural abundance. There was gold in the ground before Adam even had a job title. There was food without sweat. Wealth without worry. Glory without grind.

Before there was toil, there was trust.

Before there was poverty, there was plenty.

Before there was Egypt, there was Eden.

So why does it matter today? Because many Christians are living as if Jesus came only to save their soul, but not to redeem their purpose. They’ve accepted salvation, but rejected the blessing. They believe God can forgive sin, but not fund destiny.

That, my friend, is a spiritual contradiction.

Why Christians Still Struggle Despite Faith

Every week, I minister to people who love God but are broke. They fast, they pray, they tithe (sometimes), but they can’t seem to break through. And for many years, that reality puzzled me. How could someone who is so faithful be so fruitless?

Then I realized the problem: many Christians have faith in God's power but no knowledge of His covenant.

"My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge..."

—Hosea 4:6

The enemy does not fear a shouting believer. He does not tremble at your dancing. What terrifies him is when you have understanding of God's system. Satan will let you sing in tongues all night, as long as you stay ignorant of how the blessing works.

Let's be clear: blessing is not money. Money is a byproduct. Blessing is a spiritual force. It's the supernatural empowerment of God upon your life that causes everything you touch to prosper. That's why Joseph could prosper as a slave. He didn't have freedom. He didn't own land. But he had something Pharaoh couldn't see—the blessing.

"The Lord was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man..."

—Genesis 39:2

So, here's the mystery: the blessing is invisible, but it produces visible results.

It is not just having things. It's having God's supernatural endorsement in everything you do. And when that endorsement is active, doors open, favor finds you, ideas multiply, and your life becomes too fruitful to ignore.

But the enemy's greatest strategy is to keep Christians chasing events instead of entering covenants.

The Curse of a “Just Enough” Mentality

We have glorified struggle in the church.

We’ve equated being broke with being holy. We’ve preached messages that romanticize suffering and condemn prosperity. As a result, many believers have been trained to expect less, settle for just enough, and fear the idea of financial dominion.

But hear me: there is nothing spiritual about lack.

Jesus never glorified poverty. He glorified purpose. Even when He was born in a manger, wise men brought Him gold. Not because He was needy—but because He was King.

Why do Christians still struggle despite faith? Because they misinterpret struggle as God's will. They assume their condition is humility, when in fact it's a violation of spiritual law.

The truth is simple: you cannot receive what you reject. If you believe wealth is evil, your spirit will unconsciously block it. If you think abundance is only for “prosperity preachers,” you’ll never experience God’s abundance for your own life.

And sadly, the modern church has done more to teach people how to repent of sin than how to receive inheritance.

The Blessing Is More Than a Feeling—It’s a Law

God does not bless people randomly. He blesses through laws, patterns, and principles. And when those principles are activated, they work every time—regardless of location, economy, or background.

The tithe is not a church fundraiser. It's a spiritual law that governs the release of heaven's economy into your life. The first fruit is not an outdated ritual. It's a prophetic instruction that sets the tone for the rest of the year. The offering is not an emotional gift—it's a weapon when sown by revelation.

The blessing is a governed realm.

If you ignore its laws, you remain under a closed heaven.

If you align with them, you unlock your inheritance.

"If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land."

—Isaiah 1:19

The Real Reason God Wants You Blessed

Now, let's get to the heart of the matter. Why does God want you to walk in blessing? Not so you can boast. Not so you can impress people. But so that you can fulfill your assignment without limitation.

The purpose of blessing is function.

God doesn't just want you free from debt—He wants you positioned to fund the Gospel, build the Kingdom, and rescue others.

There are some visions you'll never fulfill if you're broke.

There are some battles you'll never win without wealth.

The poor man may be wise, but his words are not heard (Ecclesiastes 9:16). That's why God is raising up Kingdom financiers, covenant tithers, radical sowers, and first-fruit givers who understand that wealth is not about ego—it's about obedience.

The Blessing Is Still the Plan

If the curse of lack came through disobedience, then the blessing must come through alignment.

The blessing is not outdated.

The tithe is not Old Testament bondage.

The first fruit is not legalism.

These are not religious traditions—they are divine transactions.

When God wants to shift your life, He introduces you to a covenant. This book is not about giving more money—it's about activating the blessing. And I'm here to tell you: the blessing of God still works. It still matters. And it is still the only legal access to supernatural provision.

In This Chapter, Remember:

- The blessing is God's original blueprint for humanity.
- Poverty is not a virtue; it is often a sign of spiritual misalignment.
- The tithe, first fruit, and offering are three distinct but unified systems that activate heaven's economy.
- You were never created to survive—you were created to subdue.
- The blessing is your inheritance, and this is the generation that will reclaim it.

Prophetic Decree:

“I decree over your life: May the blessing of the Lord be reactivated. May your Eden be restored. May you no longer labor under a closed heaven. Every cycle of ‘just enough’ is broken. Every false humility disguised as spiritual stagnation is cast down. May the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob make you fruitful, multiply you, and cause you to overflow. In Jesus’ name, Amen.”

My Personal Journey With the Tithe

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony...”

—Revelation 12:11

A 25p Revelation That Changed My Life

I remember the exact moment the revelation of the tithe first became alive in my spirit. It wasn't during a Sunday sermon. It wasn't while I was seated in the comfort of a church. It was when I was homeless in London, walking the streets with no bed, no food, and no backup plan.

I had only 25 pence in my pocket. For many, 25p is almost nothing. But to me, it was everything. It was all I had in the world. No bank account. No home. No one to call. And yet, that 25p became the first seed of a lifetime of miracles.

I had just been introduced to Christ not long before, and something inside me said, “This belongs to God.” I remembered the principle I had been taught—that the tithe is the first 10% of all your increase. Even in my poverty, I recognized that I had received. And I knew the 25p wasn't mine—it was God's portion.

So I did something radical. I took a portion of it, set it aside as tithe, and lifted it up to God with trembling hands. I spoke over it. I named it. I said, "Lord, I give You what belongs to You. Let this seed speak for me."

That night, I had no idea what was about to unfold. But heaven knew. That moment marked the beginning of a supernatural journey I could have never imagined.

From the Streets to a Seat of Honor

Not long after sowing that tithe, doors began to open that I could not explain. A man I didn't know approached me and offered to help me with food. Another day, someone offered me temporary accommodation. It wasn't luxury—but it was mercy. It was a divine interruption.

The more I obeyed God with the little I had, the more He began to multiply the little into more. Each time money came to me—even just a pound or two—I would tithe. And every single time, the next blessing would come faster and larger than the last.

I quickly learned: the tithe was not just about giving—it was about governance. It governed my atmosphere. It covered me. It shifted things I couldn't see.

I moved from sleeping on the floor to sharing a room.

From sharing a room to renting my own place.

From struggling to survive to being paid to serve.

From walking on foot to driving my own vehicle.

From being unemployed to running businesses.

From being single to marrying the woman of my prayers.

From brokenness to becoming a father, a prophet, a pastor, and a global leader.

And every breakthrough came on the back of tithing obedience.

Tithing While Hungry

There were seasons when I had to choose between eating and tithing. Yes, that's how real the test became.

Some days, I would receive just enough to buy a small meal—but if that increase came into my hands, I separated the tithe first. I made up my mind early: God will never get my leftovers. He will always get my first.

I remember one day walking into a shop hungry. I had just enough to buy a sandwich. But I had tithed from that money, so what I had left wouldn't be enough. I stood there for several minutes, looking at the food. Then I said out loud, "Lord, You are my portion."

That same afternoon, a man I had never met walked up to me and said, "The Lord told me to take you for lunch." He bought me a full meal. But not just that—he ended up connecting me to someone who needed a driver. That temporary job became a key connection that led to several other doors opening.

What started as obedience in hunger became an open heaven of provision.

Tithing for a Wife

I didn't just tithe for money—I tithed for marriage.

I began to declare what kind of wife I wanted—one who loved God, was full of wisdom, would serve with me in ministry, and carry the same grace. Every time I tithed, I would say, “Lord, this is my covenant seed for a godly wife. Let it speak for me.”

And sure enough, at the appointed time, God brought her. She matched every prayer. She was anointed, wise, supportive, and full of virtue. Today, we serve together in full-time ministry, and I can tell you with certainty: my tithe brought her into my life.

Tithing for a Child

When we were believing God for our first child, we began to name our tithe “fruit of the womb.” Every month, without fail, we sowed the tithe and spoke Psalm 127:3 over it: “Lo, children are a heritage of the Lord...”

Not only did we conceive, but we also saw divine provision. We told God we didn't want to buy anything for the baby except a Christmas gift. And would you believe—people began giving us clothes, supplies, and gifts from newborn age up to two years old!

Even the midwife who helped deliver our child was born again. God orchestrated everything. Why? Because we tithed for it.

Tithing as a Weapon Against Witchcraft

There came a time when I was under heavy spiritual attack—strange dreams, sudden losses, people turning against me without reason. I knew it wasn't natural. This was witchcraft.

But instead of panicking, I activated my covenant. I began tithing strategically. I said, "Lord, let this tithe stand as a memorial before You. Let it be a defense in the courts of heaven."

The dreams stopped. The confusion lifted. The sabotage failed. God began to expose every hidden enemy and reverse every demonic agenda.

Your tithe is not just a key—it's a sword.

From One Seed to a Global Ministry

Today, by the grace of God, I oversee a growing church network, deliverance school, media ministry, and a publishing house with over 200 books—and it all began with one tithe seed of 25p.

People see the ministry today and marvel. They ask how it grew, how doors opened, how miracles are constant.

The answer is simple: I never stopped tithing.

I have tithed from:

- Every book I've sold.
- Every gift I've received.
- Every international honorarium.
- Every birthday blessing.
- Every business profit.

- Every increase—no matter how small.

And not only me, but our entire ministry is built on tithing. We tithe the tithe, just as God instructed the Levites in Numbers 18:25–29. That’s why we are continually expanding and experiencing miracles that never cease.

Tithing Is Not a Money Issue—It’s a Heart Issue

Let me say something clearly: I did not become blessed because I tithed out of abundance. I became blessed because I tithed in covenant obedience.

The tithe doesn’t make sense naturally. But it isn’t meant to. It is spiritual. It doesn’t work by math. It works by faith.

People who argue about tithing miss the point. It’s not about giving God 10%. It’s about recognizing that the whole 100% came from Him. It’s about saying, “God, You are my Source—not my job, not my business, not my bank.”

That’s what I learned when I had nothing—and that’s what I still believe now that I have something.

Let My Story Become Your Revelation

I did not write this chapter to boast—I wrote it to provoke your faith.

If God could take a homeless man with 25p and turn him into a prophetic voice, a family leader, a kingdom builder, and a global author—then He can do it for you.

The secret is simple: honor God with what belongs to Him.

“Honor the Lord with your substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase: So shall thy barns be filled with plenty...”

—Proverbs 3:9–10

Don’t wait for “one day” to start tithing. Begin with what you have. Speak over it. Name it. Believe it. And watch the God who multiplied five loaves and two fish multiply your obedience into legacy.

In This Chapter, Remember:

- I started tithing with 25p and saw continuous divine multiplication.
- I tithed for food, for shelter, for marriage, for children, and for ministry.
- Tithing is not about amount—it’s about alignment.
- Your tithe speaks in spiritual places you cannot enter physically.
- Tithing consistently is a covenant lifestyle that attracts heaven’s intervention.

Prophetic Activation Prayer:

Father, I thank You for the revelation of covenant tithing. I repent for every moment I withheld what was Yours. Today, I realign myself with Your instruction. Let the tithe I bring be a testimony of my trust. Just as You lifted Your servant from the street into overflow, lift me. Just as You provided food, shelter, a wife, and children for him, do it for me. I name my tithe and call in my harvest. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Fall of Man: The First Violation of God's Portion

"But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it..."

—Genesis 2:17

A Garden Full of Everything... and One Tree Reserved

Before sin entered the world, before pain or poverty, there was perfect provision.

Adam was created last, not first. Why? Because God prepared everything Adam would need before placing him in it. Light, water, air, fruit, gold, rivers, relationships—all in place. Man was born into a realm of abundance, not scarcity.

And yet in the midst of that abundance, God placed one limitation. One divine boundary.

“Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it...”

—Genesis 2:16–17

God gave Adam access to everything—except one. That one tree was not a trap. It was a test. It was not about control. It was about honor.

That tree was God's portion. It was set apart, sanctified, and not to be consumed.

The Eden Principle: The First Tithe

Let me show you something the Church has often overlooked:

That forbidden tree in the Garden was the first tithe.

It wasn't called “tithe” yet, but the principle was clear: “You may enjoy the increase, but one part belongs to Me.”

- Adam could touch the tree.
- He could tend to it.
- He could admire it.
- But he was not allowed to consume it.

The moment he ate from it, he violated divine order. He didn't just sin—he robbed God.

“And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food... she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband...”

—Genesis 3:6

This was the first moment a human being took what belonged to God and treated it as common.

The Result? A Closed Heaven

The consequences were immediate and devastating:

- Separation from God
- Loss of access to divine provision
- Toil and sweat replaced ease and flow
- Fear, shame, and hiding entered the soul
- The ground was cursed

“Cursed is the ground for thy sake... thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee...”

—Genesis 3:17–18

It wasn’t just about fruit. It was about function. Adam lost dominion because he failed to honor God’s boundary.

The same thing still happens today.

When we touch what belongs to God—when we eat the tithe—we are repeating Adam’s error. And like Adam, many believers are living outside of Eden—not because they are evil, but because they’ve violated the portion reserved for God.

The Tithe Is a Tree You Don’t Eat From

Let me say it plainly: Your tithe is a tree.

It grows in the midst of your income.

You labor around it. You're aware of it. You may even think you need it.

But it is not yours.

God lets you manage the 90%—but the 10% is holy.

“And all the tithe of the land... is the Lord's: it is holy unto the Lord.”

—Leviticus 27:30

To take the tithe and use it for rent, bills, shopping, or self-pleasure is to do exactly what Adam did: consume the one part that was set apart.

And just like Adam lost his garden, we risk losing access to the flow of divine provision when we dishonor the portion.

The Psychological Deception of the Tree

The enemy didn't force Adam and Eve to eat. He only twisted their perspective.

“Yea, hath God said...?”

—Genesis 3:1

He introduced doubt.

He made them believe God was withholding from them.

He framed the restriction as oppression instead of protection.

Satan still uses the same strategy today.

He whispers:

- “The church just wants your money.”
- “You can’t afford to tithe this month.”
- “God understands your rent is due.”
- “Tithing is Old Testament—it’s not for now.”

And suddenly, the tree looks good. Necessary, even. But it’s still forbidden.

What looked like survival turned into separation.

When You Eat the Tithe, You Invite the Curse

“Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed Me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed Thee? In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with a curse...”

—Malachi 3:8–9

You may not physically die like Adam. But the curse of hard labor, stagnation, and frustration enters your financial life.

It’s not that God punishes you—it’s that He withdraws partnership.

You chose to fund your life without Him—so He honors your choice.

- No rebuke of the devourer.
- No open windows.
- No blessing poured out.

Just hard ground, thorns, and a life of chasing provision instead of commanding it.

Tithing Restores You to Eden

The beautiful thing is this: God didn't destroy Adam. He removed him—but He also made a plan for restoration.

In the same way, God doesn't abandon you when you fail to tithe. But He cannot break His own principles. The moment you realign, the Eden blessing begins to return.

“Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse... and prove Me now herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts...”

—Malachi 3:10

Tithing is not just obedience—it's restoration.

It's saying, “Lord, I will no longer eat what belongs to You. I want to walk with You again. I want my garden back.”

Eden Was Not a Fantasy—It Was a Blueprint

When people read about Eden, they often think it's some poetic utopia. But Eden was God's original prototype for how His people should live:

- In a place prepared for them.
- In a flow of continuous provision.
- In partnership with heaven.
- In dominion, not dependence.

Every time you tithe, you are stepping back into that design.

You are saying:

- “I want Your presence more than I want the fruit.”
- “I honor Your portion, Lord.”
- “I trust You with what is Yours, and I expect You to bless what is mine.”

Lessons From Adam: Five Eden Revelations

1. Provision existed before Adam did
 - God doesn’t create people then plan for them. He provides, then places.
2. The blessing is released through boundaries
 - God’s “No” to the tree was an invitation to honor.
3. Disobedience disconnects you from overflow
 - Adam didn’t stop being God’s creation—but he stopped walking in the blessing.
4. The tree was a test of trust, not temptation
 - Every time you tithe, you pass the Eden test again.
5. Restoration is always possible through obedience
 - God covered Adam. He will cover you—if you return to Him.

The Tree Is Still in the Garden of Your Income

It's still there. That tithe. That portion. That one set-apart piece.

It's not a tax. It's not punishment. It's an invitation.

To eat it is to walk in Adam's footsteps.

To honor it is to unlock your Eden again.

In This Chapter, Remember:

- Adam's disobedience was the first violation of God's portion.
- The forbidden tree in Eden represents the tithe—holy and set apart.
- Eating the tithe brings separation, toil, and closed heavens.
- The tithe is a test of trust, not a trap of control.
- Obedience restores you to God's original plan of provision and dominion.

Prophetic Prayer of Realignment:

Father, I recognize that everything good in my life has come from You. Forgive me for every time I touched or consumed what was Yours. Today, I repent like Adam should have. I bring my tithe—not just as a financial act, but as a holy offering. I declare the tree in my garden is Yours. I will no longer eat what is sacred. Restore me to Eden. Let the ground respond again. Let the rivers flow again. Let my dominion return. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Where Are My Blessings?

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.”

—Ephesians 1:3

The Warehouse of Heaven

You are not waiting for God to bless you.

That may sound radical, but it’s the truth. According to the Word, God has already blessed you. Not “will bless”—has blessed.

“...who hath blessed us...”

—Ephesians 1:3

That phrase is past tense.

Your miracle is not in the making.

Your breakthrough is not on layaway.

Your destiny is not delayed in heaven's mailroom.

The moment you were born again in Christ, every spiritual blessing—healing, peace, favour, open doors, wisdom, divine connections, financial provision—was deposited into your heavenly account.

The only question is: how do you access it?

Heavenly Places Require Heavenly Protocol

Ephesians 1:3 tells us where our blessings are located: “in heavenly places.” That means they are not earthly in origin, but they are releasable to earth. They exist in a higher dimension but were designed to manifest in your physical reality.

But here's the mystery: what is spiritual must be accessed spiritually.

You cannot unlock spiritual blessings through carnal means.

You cannot withdraw from a supernatural realm using natural tools.

You need a heavenly access code.

That access code is not your talent.

It's not your education.

It's not even your tears.

The divine access code that opens the windows of heaven is found in Malachi 3:10:

“Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse... and prove Me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven...”

The tithe opens the system.

Why Believers Are Spiritually Overdrawn

Many believers are frustrated because they pray, they fast, they love God—and yet they struggle financially.

The problem is not that they are cursed.

The problem is that they are locked out.

Imagine someone with a multi-million-pound account in a Swiss bank. The wealth is there. The account is real. The funds are sufficient. But without the access code, they cannot withdraw a single coin.

That’s how many Christians live: spiritually rich, but experientially poor.

They have the inheritance.

They even have the name on the account.

But they don’t know the code.

And until they learn the code, the blessings remain in heavenly places—unused, untouched, and unavailable.

Tithe Is the Spiritual Key That Unlocks the Safe

God has a heavenly treasury. The storehouse of glory, provision, and abundance is fully stocked. But access requires alignment.

“Prove Me... if I will not open the windows of heaven...”

—Malachi 3:10

The word “open” here means to release what is already there.

God is not manufacturing your blessing. He’s not waiting to see if He wants to bless you. It’s already prepared. The only thing that hasn’t happened is the release.

Your tithe doesn’t bribe God.

Your tithe doesn’t force Him.

Your tithe authorizes the withdrawal.

It is the legal and spiritual transaction that activates the mechanism of divine flow.

The Windows Are Real

Let me pause and address this prophetically: the “windows of heaven” mentioned in Malachi 3:10 are not symbolic. They are real.

In the days of Noah, the Bible says:

“The same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.”

—Genesis 7:11

Heaven has windows—portals of access, spiritual gates where transactions occur between dimensions.

In the natural, windows give you light, vision, and air.

In the spiritual, windows give you:

- Insight (revelation you couldn't figure out)
- Access (favor you didn't earn)
- Visibility (people seeing you they previously ignored)
- Supernatural flow (God-breathed opportunity)

When you tithe, these windows open.

When you don't, they remain shut.

The Curse of Closed Windows

"Ye are cursed with a curse... for ye have robbed Me."

—Malachi 3:9

To rob God is to refuse to release what is His.

When you eat the tithe, you block your own access. You place a spiritual padlock over your blessings.

You may still be saved.

You may still be anointed.

But your supply line is restricted.

God cannot pour out what His own Word says He will only release through obedience.

The curse is not a punishment. It's a consequence of disconnection.

The Storehouse Is the Distribution Center

Notice the instruction: "Bring all the tithes into the storehouse..."

The storehouse represents the ministry or house of God that is feeding you spiritually and aligned with covenant revelation.

It's not just any church.

It's not your cousin's outreach.

It's not a random donation.

The storehouse is the divinely appointed location where your tithe is meant to activate the heavenly economy over your life.

Just like Joseph managed Pharaoh's storehouses during famine, your spiritual storehouse manages divine distribution. When you tithe into that ground, you authorize heaven's delivery system to find you.

Why It Feels Like Your Blessings Are Delayed

Let me explain what many of you have felt:

- You've prayed for years but haven't seen the breakthrough.
- You've worked harder than others but remain stagnant.

- You've sown offerings, but no harvest came.
- You've tried everything, but doors remain closed.

Here's the truth: God never designed blessings to be begged for.

He designed them to be unlocked.

And the reason for the delay may not be the devil—it may be the absence of the tithe key.

Without the tithe, you're praying for an ATM to dispense without a PIN.

How the Tithe Activates the Flow

Let's walk through how tithing moves you from waiting to withdrawing:

1. You bring the tithe to the storehouse (obedience).
2. You confess over it (Deuteronomy 26:13–15).
3. Heaven's windows open (Malachi 3:10).
4. A blessing is poured out—not random, but targeted.
5. The devourer is rebuked—what was eating your harvest is arrested.
6. You begin to operate under divine cycles—seed, tithe, harvest, repeat.

You Can't Afford to Not Tithe

People often say, "I can't afford to tithe right now."

That's like saying, "I can't afford to keep oxygen flowing while I'm drowning."

The tithe is not a bill to pay.

It's a lifeline to your spiritual provision.

You don't tithe because you have extra—you tithe because you need access.

Access to:

- Ideas.
- Favour.
- Clients.
- Contracts.
- Unexpected open doors.
- Solutions to things money cannot buy.

Prophetic Insight: Every Blessing Has a Code

If I gave you a safe full of gold but didn't give you the combination, the gold would do you no good. You could scream, cry, and even anoint the safe with oil—but until you enter the code, nothing opens.

In the Kingdom of God:

- Forgiveness is accessed through repentance.
- Healing is accessed through faith.
- Blessing is accessed through tithing.

You may fast 40 days. You may cry all night. But only the tithe unlocks the windows of heaven.

Let's Rephrase Ephesians 1:3 With Understanding

Let's paraphrase Ephesians 1:3 in light of what we've learned:

"God has already released every spiritual blessing I will ever need—stored in heavenly realms—but it's my job to access it by covenant obedience, beginning with the tithe."

That's why you're not waiting on a blessing. The blessing is waiting on you.

Tithing Repositions You for Transfer

In these last days, there is a massive wealth transfer that is coming to God's remnant. But it will not be delivered to just anyone—it will be transferred to those who are already aligned with heaven's economy.

"The wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just."

—Proverbs 13:22

"Just" here doesn't mean perfect. It means justified by obedience.

Your tithe is your legal positioning for divine release.

In This Chapter, Remember:

- You are already blessed—in heavenly places.
- Blessings must be spiritually accessed, not emotionally begged for.
- The tithe is the access code that opens the windows of heaven.

- Without tithing, your blessings remain locked in storage.
- When you tithe, you shift from waiting to withdrawing.

Prophetic Confession of Access:

Father, I thank You that You have already blessed me with every spiritual blessing in Christ Jesus. I renounce every lie of lack and delay. Today, I take my position as a covenant tither. Let every window that has been closed over my life be opened. I enter the storehouse system. I receive divine release. What has been stored up is now pouring out. I declare I will no longer live beneath my inheritance. I have the access code. I walk in overflow. In Jesus' name, Amen.

What Is the Tithe?

“And all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD’s: it is holy unto the LORD.”

—Leviticus 27:30

What Does “Tithe” Actually Mean?

The word tithe comes from the Hebrew word ma’āšēr (מַעֲשֵׂר), which literally means “a tenth part.” A tithe is 10% of your increase—nothing more, nothing less.

- If you earn £100, the tithe is £10.
- If you receive £1,000, the tithe is £100.
- If you harvest ten bags of grain, one bag belongs to God.

It is the first tenth of your income, profit, or blessing—not after your bills, not after your holiday, not after you’ve “seen what’s left”—but the first tenth, set apart and returned.

You do not “give” the tithe.

You return it.

Because it was never yours to begin with.

The Tithe Is God’s Property

Let’s make this absolutely clear: The tithe belongs to God.

“The tithe... is the LORD’s: it is holy unto the LORD.”

—Leviticus 27:30

God considers the tithe His personal property. It is not optional. It is not charitable. It is not yours to decide how or if it should be used.

You don’t get to say:

- “I’m giving my tithe to a widow instead.”
- “I’m holding onto my tithe this month.”
- “I’m spending my tithe on good causes.”

No.

To touch the tithe is to rob God, according to Malachi 3:8. And to rob God is to disconnect yourself from divine economy.

“Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.”

If you return the tithe, you are not doing God a favor. You are simply honoring what already belongs to Him.

The Tithe Is From ALL Increase

People often ask, “Should I tithe on gross income or net?”

Let’s look at the principle in Deuteronomy 14:22:

“Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed...”

The tithe is from all your increase. Not what’s left after taxes. Not after deductions. All means all.

- Salary? Tithe.
- Business profit? Tithe.
- Side hustle? Tithe.
- Found money or unexpected blessing? Tithe.
- Birthday gifts, tax refund, or cash rebate? Tithe.

If it increases you, it involves God—and 10% is His.

Tithe Is Not a Tax—It’s a Test

The tithe is not God taxing you like the government.

God doesn’t need your money. He owns everything already.

The tithe is not about God’s survival—it’s about your alignment.

“That I may prove you...”

—Malachi 3:10

The tithe is a test of trust and a sign of stewardship.

Every time increase touches your hands, you're faced with a choice:

- Will I honor God first?
- Do I trust God enough to live on 90% with blessing?
- Or will I consume it all and risk operating outside of divine protection?

The First Recorded Tither: Abraham

The first recorded act of tithing happened before the Law of Moses, before any commandment was written. It was a spontaneous and prophetic act by Abraham.

“And he gave him tithes of all.”

—Genesis 14:20

After a victorious battle and supernatural rescue, Abraham meets Melchizedek—the King of Salem and Priest of the Most High God. Melchizedek blesses him, and Abraham responds by giving a tithe of all.

This was not law.

It was not forced.

It was honour.

Abraham knew: “If this victory came from God, then 10% belongs to Him.”

Jacob's Vow: Tithing Is Covenant Language

Abraham's grandson, Jacob, made a vow after a divine encounter:

"Of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee."

—Genesis 28:22

Jacob wasn't bargaining with God—he was making covenant.

He understood that everything he had was because of God, and the only appropriate response was to return the holy portion.

From Abraham to Jacob, the tithe was not legalism—it was gratitude, covenant, and faith.

Tithing Under the Law: Levitical Order

When Israel became a nation, God formalized tithing in the Law of Moses. The tithe became the primary system by which:

- The Temple was maintained.
- The Levites (priests) were provided for.
- The poor and stranger were helped.
- The nation stayed in spiritual alignment.

"Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house..."

—Malachi 3:10

The tithe created God's economy.

It was never about greed. It was about governance.

Is Tithing Still for Today? (New Testament Proof)

Let's clear the common confusion: "Tithing was Old Testament. We're under grace now."

That's partially true—we are under grace, but tithing is not abolished.

"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye pay tithe... and have omitted the weightier matters... these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone."

—Matthew 23:23

Jesus didn't cancel the tithe. He affirmed it.

He said: "Do the weightier matters of justice and mercy—but don't neglect the tithe."

The Priesthood of Melchizedek Still Stands

The book of Hebrews reveals a powerful truth:

"Here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth."

—Hebrews 7:8

Today, we don't give to Levites. We give to Christ—our High Priest after the order of Melchizedek.

When you tithe to your local church or ministry, it's not just an earthly transaction—it's a spiritual offering, received in heaven by Christ Himself.

You are tithing to the Living One who still receives tithes by faith.

Tithing Is About Honor, Not Obligation

Throughout Scripture, the tithe is always connected to honoring God.

“Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase: So shall thy barns be filled with plenty...”

—Proverbs 3:9–10

You don’t tithe to avoid a curse.

You tithe because you trust Him, you love Him, and you recognize that without Him, you have nothing.

Honor always opens overflow.

What Happens When You Don’t Tithe?

According to Malachi 3:

- The windows of heaven remain shut.
- The devourer is not rebuked.
- Your harvest is vulnerable to destruction.
- Nations don’t recognize you as blessed.
- God’s house lacks provision.

Tithing is not punishment—it’s protection.

Tithing Is Your Covenant Signature

Tithing is not about legalism. It's not about money.

It's about lordship.

Every time you tithe, you are signing a document in the spirit realm that says:

"I recognize God as the source of my life. I return what is His. I partner with His system. I trust Him as my provider."

In This Chapter, Remember:

- The tithe means 10% of all your increase.
- It belongs to God and is not optional.
- It existed before the Law and continued after it.
- Jesus affirmed it in the New Testament.
- You return the tithe—not out of duty, but out of honor.
- The tithe is the foundation of divine partnership.

Prophetic Declaration:

I declare I am not a consumer—I am a covenant keeper.

I return the tenth, not from fear, but from faith.

The tithe is holy. It is God's. I will not touch what is sacred.

I walk in alignment with heaven's economy.

As I tithe, I unlock divine access, rebuke the devourer, and receive supernatural increase. In Jesus' name. Amen.

The Tithe Is Not an Offering

“Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed Me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.”

—Malachi 3:8

Mislabeling the Offering

There is a common—and costly—confusion in the Church today. Many believers assume that when they give anything to God, it’s automatically “an offering” or “a tithe.”

They drop £20 into the basket and call it tithing.

They give to the poor and call it sowing.

They partner with a ministry once and call it covenant.

But here’s the truth:

Not every gift is a tithe. Not every gift is an offering. Not every offering is a seed.

And misunderstanding these categories leads to misalignment in blessing.

In this chapter, we dismantle the confusion and draw a clear biblical line between two foundational financial principles:

- Tithe — The obligation of covenant.
- Offering — The expression of love and generosity.

You need both—but you must know the difference.

What Is the Tithe? (A Quick Recap)

As you've already learned:

- The tithe is 10% of your increase.
- It is the Lord's property, not yours to decide on.
- It must be returned to the storehouse—the house that feeds you spiritually.
- It is non-negotiable, not emotional.
- It opens the windows of heaven and rebukes the devourer.

The tithe is not generosity—it is governance.

It is your divine tax—your kingdom citizenship fee, your covenant compliance, and your spiritual alignment code.

You don't give the tithe to God—you return it.

What Is an Offering?

An offering is something entirely different.

It is:

- Voluntary (not commanded)
- Variable (not fixed at 10%)
- Personal (you determine the amount)
- Emotional and spiritual (based on love, faith, or need)
- A sacrifice, gift, or freewill expression

“Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring Me an offering: of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take My offering.”

—Exodus 25:2

Offerings are optional—but powerful. They are not obligations—they are love gifts.

While the tithe establishes covenant, the offering reveals your heart.

Offering Is What You Give—Tithe Is What You Owe

Let me put it like this:

- When you tithe, you pay what is owed.
- When you offer, you give what is desired.

If you are earning £1,000 and tithe £100, you haven't given anything yet—you've just returned what belongs to God.

Only when you go beyond the tithe do you begin to give an offering.

Many Christians think they are being generous—but they've never tithed consistently. So heaven sees them as robbers, not givers.

The offering begins after the tithe.

Biblical Categories of Offerings

The Bible speaks of several types of offerings:

1. Freewill Offerings – Voluntary gifts out of gratitude or love (Deut. 16:10).
2. Sacrificial Offerings – Painful but powerful gifts that cost you something (2 Sam. 24:24).
3. Thank Offerings – Given in response to a miracle, healing, or breakthrough (Lev. 7:12).
4. Vow Offerings – Given in fulfillment of a promise to God (Num. 30:2).
5. Firstfruits Offerings – The first of any harvest or increase (Prov. 3:9).

Each of these offerings was in addition to the tithe.

They are expressions of your spiritual maturity, your financial faith, and your covenant depth.

Why the Distinction Matters

Let's use an analogy.

Imagine you're renting a house. Your monthly rent is £1,000. Every month, you pay that amount on time. That's your obligation—not a gift.

But one day, you decide to bless your landlord with a fruit basket or Christmas card. That's a gift.

Your rent keeps you legally housed.

Your gift reveals your heart.

The tithe keeps you covered under the windows of heaven.

The offering brings overflow, intimacy, and multiplication.

Don't confuse them.

You can't substitute a gift for a bill—and you can't substitute an offering for a tithe.

Malachi 3: Both Are Required

"Ye have robbed Me in tithes and offerings..."

Notice God didn't say "tithes or offerings."

He said both.

That means there are two levels of obedience:

1. Covenant compliance (tithes)
2. Covenant expression (offerings)

To withhold either is to rob God, and thus short-circuit your own blessing.

Many tithers struggle because they tithe—but never give.

And many givers struggle because they give—but never tithe.

Prophetic Principle: The Tithe Opens the Window —The Offering Determines What Comes Through

Malachi says that tithing opens the windows of heaven.

But it is the quality of your offering that determines what flows through that open window.

It is possible to have the windows open—but only receive trickles.

Why?

Because your offering was stingy, faithless, or withheld.

Remember Cain and Abel. Both brought offerings. One was rejected.

“By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain...”

—Hebrews 11:4

The heart matters.

The excellence matters.

The offering reveals the level of your trust and affection.

New Testament: Jesus and the Offering

“And He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the offering box. Many rich people put in large sums. And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins... Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more...”

—Mark 12:41–44

This story confirms three truths:

1. Jesus still watches giving.
2. It’s not about the amount—it’s about the sacrifice.
3. The offering moves God when it costs you something.

Tithing Can Protect—But Offering Can Promote

Let me be very clear.

Tithing will protect your finances.

It rebukes the devourer, guards your harvest, and keeps heaven’s window open.

But it is offering that often brings the next-level breakthrough:

- Promotion.
- Unexpected contracts.
- Angelic assistance.
- Favour in court.
- Global doors.
- Acceleration.

Tithing secures. Offering expands.

How to Discern When You're Giving Tithe vs. Offering

Ask yourself:

- Is this exactly 10% of my increase? Then it's a tithe.
- Is this beyond 10%? Then it's an offering.
- Did I decide the amount? Offering.
- Was I returning what belongs to God? Tithe.
- Did I give it out of joy, love, or gratitude? Offering.
- Did I give it in obedience to covenant law? Tithe.

Avoid the Error of Substitution

Some believers give to family, friends, or charities and call it “my tithe.”

That's unscriptural.

The tithe has a designated destination—the storehouse (Malachi 3:10).

You cannot redirect a tax. You cannot repurpose a vow.

If you want to help someone or support a cause—praise God. But do not rob God to help people.

Common Myths and Errors

- “I don't have to tithe if I give generously.”

Giving generously is not an excuse to ignore what belongs to God.

- “I tithe with my time or my gifts.”

The tithe is specifically financial or material increase. You cannot replace pounds with minutes.

- “My tithe can go to the poor.”

That’s an offering—not a tithe. The poor were cared for through offerings, not the tithe.

Offering Without Tithe Is Like Decorating a House With No Foundation

Don’t decorate the outside while ignoring the foundation.

Tithe first.

That’s the floor.

Then build upwards with your offerings.

That’s the structure.

Then give firstfruits, vows, and sacrificial seeds.

That’s the roof and decoration.

But if you only give offerings with no tithe—you’re building with no floor.

And eventually, the structure will fall.

In This Chapter, Remember:

- The tithe is 10% owed. The offering is voluntary love.
- Tithe is about obedience and access.
- Offering is about intimacy and overflow.
- You can't substitute an offering for the tithe.
- You need both to experience full covenant blessing.

Prophetic Declaration:

I am a faithful tither and a generous giver.

I will not confuse what belongs to God with what is mine to give.

I return what is holy, and I give what is heartfelt.

My tithe opens the windows. My offering determines the measure.

I will not rob God. I will honour Him with both tithe and offering.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

How to Pay the Tithe Properly

“When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increase... Then thou shalt say before the Lord thy God...”

—Deuteronomy 26:12–13

Obedience Requires Order

Many believers are faithful to tithe, but few understand that how you tithe is just as important as that you tithe.

God is not only concerned with action, but with order, attitude, and spiritual alignment.

In Deuteronomy 26, the Lord gives clear protocol on how the tithe must be presented:

- It must be set aside intentionally.
- It must be spoken over prophetically.
- It must be presented properly to the place God designates.

In this chapter, we walk through the threefold tithe protocol and how it unlocks not just blessing—but boldness before God.

Set It Aside: The Principle of Separation

“When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increase...”

—Deuteronomy 26:12

The first instruction is that the tithe must be set aside from the rest of your income.

The tithe is not an afterthought. It’s not what’s “left over.” It’s the first transaction you make when increase comes.

The tithe is holy, which means it must be separated.

When you receive a salary, commission, profit, inheritance, or gift, the first action must be to identify and isolate God’s portion.

This is how you honor Him. Not by giving when convenient, but by recognizing His ownership first.

“Honor the Lord with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase...”

—Proverbs 3:9

To honor is to put first.

Just like the tree in Eden was off-limits, the tithe is not for personal consumption. It must not be mingled, delayed, or withheld.

When you set it aside, you are making a prophetic declaration:

“This belongs to the Lord.”

Speak Over It: The Power of Prophetic Confession

“Then thou shalt say before the Lord thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of mine house...”

—Deuteronomy 26:13

The second instruction is to speak over your tithe.

This is a step many skip, and yet it holds deep prophetic significance.

God never asked His people to just drop money into a basket. He required them to make a declaration—to confess with their mouths that the tithe had been returned in full, that it had not been used for unclean purposes, and that their hearts were right.

This is called a tithe confession.

Why is this important?

Because your mouth governs your harvest.

“Death and life are in the power of the tongue...”

—Proverbs 18:21

When you tithe in silence, you return the portion.

But when you tithe with confession, you activate the covenant.

Just as faith without works is dead, giving without confession is limited.

Deuteronomy 26:13–15 gives a full prophetic script, where the tither declares:

- That the tithe has been returned.
- That none was held back, misused, or defiled.
- That the poor, the priest, and the house of God have been honored.
- And then makes a bold request for God to bless the land and people.

This is not just ritual—this is spiritual legislation.

Present It: Bring It to the Right Place

“Thou shalt bring all the tithe... into the storehouse, that there may be meat in Mine house...”

—Malachi 3:10

After setting it aside and speaking over it, the final step is to bring it—present it in the right location.

The tithe belongs to the storehouse—not to a random cause, family member, or even charity.

What is the storehouse?

It is the spiritual house that feeds you, covers you, intercedes for you, and is accountable before God for your soul.

The storehouse is your spiritual headquarters.

In ancient Israel, this was the Temple.

Today, it is the place you receive prophetic covering, spiritual impartation, and deliverance.

If you sow where you are not being fed, you will reap confusion.

Many believers say, “I tithe to several places,” or “I tithe to whomever I feel led.” But the biblical instruction is clear:

“Bring ALL the tithe... into the storehouse.”

Dispersing it is disobedience.

The Order of Tithing: The 3-Step Spiritual Transaction

Let’s summarize:

1. Set It Aside – Recognize and separate 10% of every increase.
2. Speak Over It – Declare that it is holy, returned, and request God’s blessing.
3. Present It – Return it to the house that feeds you and covers you.

When this order is followed, it becomes more than a transaction—it becomes a spiritual activation.

What Happens When You Don’t Follow This Order?

- Delayed Blessing – Because heaven responds to obedience, not emotion.
- Mingled Harvest – When God’s portion is mixed with yours, both are defiled.

- Unopened Windows – The covenant of Malachi 3 is conditional.
- Spiritual Insecurity – You lose confidence in prayer when you know you're out of order.
- Unseen Devourers – Unexplained loss, sabotage, or stagnation may be operating.

Remember: partial obedience is still disobedience.

Prophetic Confession for Tithers

Below is a prophetic confession you can speak every time you tithe. It is modeled after Deuteronomy 26 and reinforced by New Testament truth.

Prophetic Tithe Confession

Heavenly Father,

Today I return to You what is Yours.

I have set apart the holy tithe—10% of all my increase.

I do not hold it back. I do not spend it. I do not misuse it.

I bring it to the storehouse in obedience to Your covenant.

According to Your Word in Malachi 3:

I ask You to open the windows of heaven over my life.

Pour out a blessing I cannot contain.

Rebuke the devourer for my sake.

Covenant Wealth

Let every assignment of loss, delay, sabotage, and premature harvest be destroyed.

According to Deuteronomy 26:

I declare that I have brought away the hallowed thing from my house.

I have remembered the poor, honored Your servants, and revered Your altar.

Now look down from heaven, and bless me, bless my house, and bless the work of my hands.

Make me a delightful land, a vessel of honor, and a sign of covenant faithfulness.

I am a tither.

I walk under an open heaven.

I am not cursed. I am blessed.

I am not robbed. I am restored.

I am not empty. I am overflowing.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

Teaching Your Family and Children to Do the Same

When you train your household to tithe with this order, you raise a generation of covenant keepers.

Let your children hear you say the confession.

Let your spouse witness the honor you show to God's portion.

Let your employees or staff (if you're in business) know your principles.

Tithing is not just a financial act—it is a spiritual heritage.

In This Chapter, Remember:

- The tithe must be set aside, not mixed.
- It must be spoken over, not dropped in silence.
- It must be presented to the right place, not distributed by feeling.
- The tithe confession is a legal declaration before God.
- Tithing in order brings security, boldness, and open heaven alignment.

The Tithing Process

“It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.”

—John 6:63

Tithing Is a Spiritual Transaction, Not Just a Financial One

The act of tithing is far more than just setting money aside. It is a prophetic, spiritual process that engages both the visible and invisible realms. If you stop at calculation and delivery, you’ve only completed the outer transaction. But to receive the full manifestation of the blessing, you must engage the spiritual process.

This chapter takes you deeper into how to name, activate, and speak life into your tithe. These three elements release divine energy, multiply your harvest, and keep your tithe from being just a silent seed.

Naming Your Tithe: The Power of Prophetic Intent

“And out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast... and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.”

—Genesis 2:19

God gave man the authority to name what was brought before him.

Naming is a spiritual act of ownership and prophetic intent. When you name something, you define its purpose, assign its direction, and establish its function in the earth.

The same principle applies to your tithe.

Each time you return your tithe, you should prophetically name it. Why?

Because the tithe is a living covenant seed. It carries the potential for supernatural manifestation—but it needs to be directed.

Examples of Naming the Tithe:

- “This tithe is for the preservation of my children.”
- “This tithe is to secure my legal breakthrough.”
- “This tithe is to protect my business against devourers.”
- “This tithe is declaring my covenant against premature death.”

Tithing without naming is like sowing without targeting.

Even when God already knows your needs, naming your tithe invites His specific intervention. Just like Hannah named her offering “Samuel” and received her prophet, you too must name your tithes with prophetic clarity.

Activating the Blessing: What Turns Tithe into a Weapon

“Bring ye all the tithes... and prove Me now herewith... if I will not open you the windows of heaven...”

—Malachi 3:10

Returning the tithe begins the covenant.

But activating the blessing is where power is released.

God doesn’t just want the mechanical act. He wants covenant engagement—faith, reverence, and expectation.

Many people tithe, but still live beneath their spiritual means because they’ve never activated what they’ve returned.

So how do you activate the blessing of the tithe?

- With intentionality: Don’t tithe mindlessly—engage your faith.
- With confession: Speak the covenant promises aloud.
- With spiritual sensitivity: Be alert to what God is doing through your tithe.
- With consistency: Activation builds over time, not just in one moment.

Tithing is the key. Activation is what turns the key.

What Happens During Activation?

When the blessing is activated through confession and faith, several things happen in the spirit realm:

1. The heavens open.

- The ceiling over your life is removed. You begin to operate under divine assistance and access.

2. Angels are assigned.

- The tithe is a spiritual trigger that releases heavenly assistance to guard your increase and disrupt demonic plots.

3. The devourer is rebuked.

- Hidden loss, sabotage, spiritual leeches, and unexplainable delays are supernaturally removed.

4. Multiplication begins.

- Tithe is protection, but when activated, it also becomes multiplication.

Speaking Life Into Your Tithe: John 6:63

“The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.”

—John 6:63

Jesus said His words carry spirit and life.

When you tithe, you must learn to speak life into your tithe. This is more than a ritual. It’s spiritual technology. Your words become the carrier of your tithe’s destiny.

You are not just giving money. You are commissioning a covenant seed to fulfill divine instruction.

Your tithe is a spiritual agent—it listens, it travels, it speaks, and it returns with reward.

The tithe is silent until you speak to it.

How to Speak Life Over Your Tithe

Here are spiritual strategies for speaking life into your tithe:

a. Use God's Word

Declare scriptures like:

- Malachi 3:10–12 – “The windows of heaven are open over me.”
- Proverbs 3:9–10 – “My barns are filled with plenty.”
- Luke 6:38 – “It is given unto me—pressed down, shaken together, and running over.”

b. Personalize the Promises

- “My tithe is preserving my health.”
- “My tithe is rebuking the devourer from my ministry.”
- “My tithe is releasing divine favour in court.”

c. Declare Assignment and Return

- “Tithe, I send you forth to secure my future.”
- “Tithe, return to me with good news, contracts, miracles, and divine opportunities.”

Example of a Full Tithing Process

Let's say you just received £2,000 from a contract. Here's how to tithe prophetically:

1. Set aside £200.
2. Pray over it:
 - "Father, I return the holy tithe. It is Yours, not mine. I sanctify it."
3. Name it:
 - "This tithe is for divine relocation and home ownership."
4. Speak over it:
 - "Tithe, I send you to rebuke delay, release favour, and call forth angelic assistance."
5. Deliver it to your storehouse.
6. Expect open heaven alignment.

What If You Tithe Without Speaking?

Your tithe will still work as a basic principle, but it may not yield the full prophetic power available to you.

Speaking is how the believer creates.

God created the universe by speaking.

Jesus cursed the fig tree by speaking.

The apostles healed the sick by speaking.

You must activate the tithe by speaking.

Prophetic Truth: The Tithe Responds to Words

The tithe hears.

The tithe obeys.

The tithe returns.

If you speak fear—your tithe will bring back nothing.

If you speak faith—your tithe becomes a multiplier.

If you speak confusion—your tithe will not know its direction.

If you speak clarity—your tithe becomes a messenger of blessing.

In This Chapter, Remember:

- Name your tithe with prophetic clarity.
- Activate the blessing through confession and expectation.
- Speak life over your tithe, using scripture and prophetic assignments.
- Your words are not empty—they are containers of power.

Tithe Confession Template: The Tithing Process in Motion

Heavenly Father,

I return to You the tithe of my increase.

Dr Climate Wiseman

I have set it aside, and I now name it:

This tithe is for [insert specific name/assignment].

I declare this tithe is holy. It has not been used, mixed, or defiled.

As I release it, I activate the covenant of divine protection, open heaven, multiplication, and devourer rebuke.

Tithe, I speak to you—

Go forth and do your assignment.

Bring back divine connections, unexpected favor, and total restoration.

My land shall not be barren.

My hands shall not be empty.

My life shall not be stagnant.

This is my covenant.

This is my obedience.

This is my moment of activation.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

What Happens When You Eat the Tithe

“Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed Me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with a curse...”

—Malachi 3:8–9

God Is Serious About What Belongs to Him

Many believers ask, “What’s the harm if I skip my tithe just once?” Others say, “God understands. Times are hard.”

But what most don’t realize is this:

To eat the tithe is to steal what belongs to God.

The moment you consume the tithe for personal use—whether out of ignorance, neglect, or disobedience—you trigger a spiritual law.

This chapter is not to condemn, but to awaken.

It is to make clear the consequences of handling the holy portion in an unholy manner.

The Language God Uses: “You Have Robbed Me”

God doesn’t say “You made a mistake.”

He doesn’t say “You forgot.”

He says “You robbed Me.”

To rob means to take forcefully what belongs to another.

This is not light language. God considers the tithe His possession, and when it is used for rent, bills, food, or even charity, it is a spiritual theft.

And unlike earthly theft, where you rob a person—this is robbing the Almighty.

“Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed Me, even this whole nation.”

—Malachi 3:9

Consequences of Eating the Tithe

a. A Curse Is Activated

The curse is not God’s punishment—it is the automatic consequence of violating His law.

When the tithe is withheld:

- The heavens close.
- The devourer is released.

- The blessing is halted.

Many believers are praying for breakthrough while holding on to stolen goods.

You cannot expect divine protection when you are in violation of divine order.

b. Loss of Supernatural Protection

Malachi 3:11 promises that God will “rebuke the devourer” for the tither’s sake.

But when you eat the tithe, that protective covering is lifted.

Suddenly:

- Cars break down for no reason.
- Unexpected bills appear.
- Health issues arise without cause.
- Progress is reversed without explanation.

These are not coincidences—they are symptoms of an uncovered life.

c. Stagnation and Delay

Eating the tithe leads to a spiritual ceiling.

No matter how hard you work, doors won’t open.

You'll notice:

- Repeated cycles of starting and stopping.
- Promises never fulfilled.
- Effort without progress.
- Constant borrowing or hand-to-mouth living.

A non-tither may make money, but they can't keep it or grow it.

Why? Because the blessing of God makes rich, and adds no sorrow—but when you violate the covenant, sorrow is introduced.

Real Case Studies: The High Cost of Consuming the Holy

Case 1: The Business That Collapsed Overnight

A businessman in Birmingham shared how his company was thriving—until he “borrowed” from his tithe just once. He had a large deal to secure and reasoned that he would pay it back next month.

That month, the deal fell through.

Two months later, his top client withdrew.

By the end of the year, his operations had folded.

“I never paid the tithe back,” he admitted. “And the covering was lifted. I had money, but no blessing.”

Case 2: The Woman Who Couldn't Conceive

A woman in Nairobi testified how for seven years she struggled with infertility. She fasted, prayed, and even visited deliverance services.

But during a prophetic session, she was asked, “Have you ever eaten the tithe?”

Tears filled her eyes. She confessed that for five years she had used the tithe for rent, promising God she would pay later—but never did.

She repented, began tithing consistently, and conceived within three months.

Her womb had been shut by a spiritual law—not biology.

Case 3: The Man Who Kept Getting Robbed

A man in Texas always found himself losing valuables—stolen phones, broken appliances, even being mugged multiple times.

When asked if he was a tither, he replied, “Not really. I give when I can.”

The prophet told him, “You’re not giving. You’re gambling.”

He repented, returned to tithing, and the attacks stopped. He testified that nothing had gone missing since then.

When you eat the tithe, the devourer gains legal access to your life.

Biblical Examples of Tithe Violations

a. Achan in Joshua 7

God told Israel that Jericho's treasures were His alone—the first portion of conquest.

Achan secretly took some silver and gold, hiding it in his tent.

Result:

- Israel lost a battle they should have won.
- Thirty-six men died.
- Achan's entire household was destroyed.

Why? Because the first portion—the tithe—was consumed.

One man's greed brought a whole nation into danger.

b. Eli's Sons – 1 Samuel 2:12–17

Eli's sons were priests, but they mishandled the offerings. They demanded fat portions before they were properly sacrificed.

The Bible says they despised the Lord's offering, and God judged them severely.

Eli's entire lineage was stripped of priesthood.

When you eat the tithe or mishandle God's portion, you endanger your family line.

What to Do If You've Eaten the Tithe

God is merciful. The moment you repent, the curse can be lifted. But repentance must be followed by restitution.

Steps to Break the Curse:

1. Acknowledge it. Don't justify or excuse.
2. Repent with sincerity. Speak to God openly and ask for mercy.
3. Make restitution. Return what you owe. If you don't know the exact amount, ask God to help you estimate and begin where you are.
4. Tithe forward. Commit to consistent obedience going forward.

God doesn't punish—He disciplines. And discipline brings restoration when received humbly.

In This Chapter, Remember:

- The tithe is God's possession. Eating it is robbery.
- Withholding the tithe releases devourers and curses.
- Spiritual stagnation, delay, and financial hardship often result from disobedience.
- Biblical and modern examples prove the tithe carries legal weight in the spirit realm.
- Repentance and restitution can break the cycle and restore divine covering.

Prophetic Declaration for Restoration:

Heavenly Father,

I acknowledge that I have mishandled the holy portion.

I have consumed what belonged to You, and I repent.

I ask for Your mercy and cleansing.

Today I renounce every spirit of delay, devouring, and financial affliction.

I return to the covenant of the tithe with reverence and honor.

Let every curse be broken.

Let every closed door open.

Let every stolen harvest be restored sevenfold.

I recommit myself to this holy covenant.

From this day forward, I will not rob You again.

I am covered, I am cleansed, and I am restored.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

The Tither's Protection

“And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the Lord of hosts.”

—Malachi 3:11

The Tithe is More Than a Seed—It is a Shield

Many believers understand tithing only as a form of giving. They tithe for increase, harvest, and multiplication. While all these are true, the tithe is also your first and strongest line of spiritual defense.

The promise of Malachi 3:11 is not about receiving more—it is about preserving what you already have.

God makes a profound covenant with tithers:

“I will personally rebuke the devourer for your sake.”

This promise is not made to those who pray.

It is not made to those who fast.

It is made to those who tithe.

Let us now explore the fullness of that divine protection, how it works, and what it has meant in the lives of tithers around the world.

What Is the Devourer?

The Hebrew word for "devourer" is "okel", meaning one who consumes, destroys, or eats up.

In practical terms, the devourer is anything that:

- Eats your harvest before you can enjoy it.
- Destroys your labor through loss, sabotage, or sickness.
- Interrupts your progress through unexpected emergencies or spiritual attacks.

The devourer can manifest as:

- Unexpected financial losses
- Car breakdowns, home damage, or stolen items
- Job loss or business failure
- Long-term illness or hospitalization
- Legal issues draining your resources
- Missed opportunities or recurring bad timing

When the devourer is at work, you work hard and see little return.

You can be anointed and still under attack—if you are not a tither.

God Says: “I Will Rebuke Him for Your Sake”

This is the only place in scripture where God personally promises to rebuke the devourer.

The word “rebuke” here means to command to stop or to muzzle like a barking dog. In other words:

God Himself steps in as your Defender and says, “No more.”

You don’t need to fight back.

You don’t need to fear.

Your tithe speaks for you.

When you tithe, God’s divine justice is invoked on your behalf.

The Fruits of Your Ground and the Vine of Your Field

Malachi 3:11 gives two powerful images:

a. “He shall not destroy the fruits of your ground”

- This refers to your harvest, income, productivity.
- Tithing keeps your business from collapsing.
- It ensures your contracts don’t disappear after hard labor.
- It protects your job and your favor in the workplace.

b. “Neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field”

- This speaks to divine timing.
- Without the tithe, opportunities may come prematurely—or never mature.
- With the tithe, you will not lose your reward before it manifests.

Tithing is a divine preserver of cycles, seasons, and increase.

Tithing As Spiritual Insurance

The tithe creates what I call “covenant coverage.” It is your spiritual insurance policy.

Much like insurance in the natural world covers you in emergencies, tithing covers you in the spirit.

It may not stop the storm from coming—but it will preserve you through it.

While others are collapsing under pressure, the tither is supernaturally kept.

What Happens When the Devourer Is Rebuked

- Delays begin to break.
- Sudden repairs or losses stop happening.
- Cycles of disappointment are interrupted.
- Divine restoration begins.
- The same effort begins to produce supernatural results.

- Hidden enemies are exposed and neutralized.
- Money stops disappearing without explanation.

Tithing not only invites increase—it activates preservation.

Personal Testimonies of Divine Defense

Case 1: The Fire That Didn't Burn

A woman from Jamaica testified during a revival service:

“My neighbor’s kitchen caught fire and the flames spread to my window. But suddenly, as if someone poured water from above, it stopped. Firefighters said they don’t understand how it didn’t spread into my house. I do. I am a tither.”

Case 2: Court Case Cancelled Overnight

A businessman in London faced a devastating lawsuit. He was set to lose over £50,000 and possibly his reputation.

Three days before the court date, the plaintiff suddenly withdrew the claim without explanation. The man testified:

“During the trial season, I never stopped tithing. I believe God rebuked the devourer in the courtroom.”

Case 3: Divine Vehicle Protection

A couple in Botswana were in a terrible road accident. Their car was completely crushed—but both of them came out unharmed.

Doctors said it was a miracle. They said, “It’s not just a miracle—it’s the covenant of the tithe.”

Case 4: Enemy Exposed at the Workplace

A woman in New York said strange things kept happening at her job—memos missing, lies told against her, promotions denied.

After sowing a prophetic seed and renewing her tithing commitment, within two weeks her manager was investigated and removed. She was promoted into the same office that once oppressed her.

God didn’t just provide—He protected.

Why the Tither Sleeps in Peace

One of the quiet blessings of being a tither is peace.

Peace of mind.

Peace in decisions.

Peace in family.

Peace in storm.

“I lay me down and slept; I awaked; for the Lord sustained me.”
—Psalm 3:5

When you’re a tither, you don’t toss and turn about tomorrow.

God is rebuking what you don’t even see.

He is defending you from what never touches you.

He is keeping your name, your health, your children.

Prophetic Insight: When God Fights for You

God will fight battles you never hear about.

Some attacks never reach you because your tithe built a wall.

Some betrayals never manifest because the devourer was silenced.

Some disasters pass over your house—not because you were lucky—but because you were covered.

The tithe is a sword. It is a shield. It is a supernatural firewall.

If You Want Protection, You Must Be Consistent

The tither's protection is not based on emotion or emergency.

It is based on consistency.

You must:

- Return the tithe faithfully.
- Do it with reverence and obedience.
- Refuse to negotiate with God's portion.

When your tithe speaks regularly, devourers are silenced permanently.

In This Chapter, Remember:

- The tithe doesn't just unlock wealth—it protects what God has already given.
- Malachi 3:11 is a divine covenant of defense, made only to tithers.
- God promises to personally rebuke spiritual destroyers on your behalf.
- Real testimonies show how tithers are preserved in storms, courts, health, and timing.
- The tither sleeps in peace because heaven is actively guarding their life.
- Tithing must be consistent—not seasonal—to fully enjoy this divine protection.

Prophetic Prayer of Divine Protection for the Tither

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for Your covenant of protection.

You said You would rebuke the devourer for my sake.

I activate that promise through my tithe.

Let no weapon formed against my finances, family, or future prosper.

Let every hidden enemy be exposed.

Let every delay be reversed.

Let every door of sabotage be shut.

I declare: I am covered.

Covenant Wealth

My household is covered.

My destiny is preserved.

The devourer has no power over me.

Because I tithe, I am shielded.

Because I honor You, I will not be ashamed.

Because I obey, I will be sustained.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

Tithing in Spiritual Warfare

“Gather My saints together unto Me; those that have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice.”

– Psalm 50:5

When the Battle Is Financial, the Victory Is Legal

In the realm of the spirit, warfare is not just about prayer—it is about position. And your position is determined by covenant.

Many believers fight hard in spiritual warfare—shouting, fasting, rebuking, and commanding. But still, they remain oppressed, blocked, or under invisible attacks. Why?

Because the devil is not only a tempter—he is also a legalist. He looks for loopholes, violations, and open doors. And one of the greatest legal protections you have against demonic warfare is the tithe.

The tithe is not only a key to blessing. It is a legal document in the court of Heaven that says:

“This one belongs to God. Hands off.”

This chapter will unveil the mystery of why tithing is one of your most powerful spiritual weapons in battle—and how it silences demonic claims, cancels witchcraft contracts, and establishes your authority in hostile territory.

1. Why Demons Fear Covenant Keepers

Let’s settle this first: demons are not afraid of religious people.

They are not afraid of loud prayers, long fasts, or even titles.

They are afraid of one thing: legal covenant.

Psalm 50:5 – “Gather My saints together unto Me; those that have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice.”

When you are a covenant keeper—especially through the tithe—you have a legal right to invoke divine justice.

Demons and devils understand this law. In fact, they know it better than many Christians. They know that if they approach a tither with a curse, Heaven will fight back.

Demons fear tithers because:

- Tithers are not just praying—they are aligned.
- Tithers are not guessing—they are legally covered.
- Tithers are not hoping—they are in covenant.

The blood of Jesus gave you access. The tithe keeps you in alignment.

2. The Courtroom of Heaven: Where Tithers Win

In Job 1, we see Satan present himself before God in the divine court, demanding permission to attack.

He is a legal accuser. The Bible calls him “the accuser of the brethren” (Revelation 12:10). He doesn’t attack randomly. He files charges. He builds cases.

When you violate divine laws, he gains access.

But when you honor divine principles, especially with the tithe, your file is stamped “no access.”

That is why in spiritual warfare, it’s not enough to pray. You must also be in divine order.

The tithe brings your entire household under God’s jurisdiction. It is your courtroom defense.

3. Even Witches Give Offerings — But It’s Not the Same

Don’t be deceived—those in the dark world understand the power of sacrifice.

Witches, occultists, satanists—they give, and often give sacrificially.

They lay items on demonic altars.

They make blood sacrifices.

They offer gifts to spiritual entities in exchange for access, favor, and influence.

Many of them succeed in the realm of manipulation because they understand that sacrifice speaks.

BUT...

Their power is illegitimate. It is temporal. It is based on fear, manipulation, and illegal spiritual transactions.

The child of God who tithes operates under divine authority.

- Witches give to take.
- Tithers give to honor.
- Witches pay for favors.
- Tithers enter covenant.
- Witches buy influence.
- Tithers receive inheritance.

That's why:

Your tithe speaks louder than their curses.

Your covenant trumps their contracts.

Your obedience silences their enchantments.

4. Case Study: The Woman Whose Dreams Were Attacked

A woman came to one of our services trembling. For over a year, she had been under severe torment in her dreams. Snakes, marine spirits, sexual violations, and dead relatives pursued her night after night.

She fasted. She prayed. She even joined prayer lines.

Nothing changed—until she began to tithe.

Within three weeks of consistently returning her tithe, the dreams stopped.

Why?

Because the enemy no longer had legal access. Her life now had a covenant shield.

5. Tithers Have the Legal Right to Rebuke

Jesus gave us authority over unclean spirits. But that authority is most potent when you are walking in covenant.

You cannot rebuke what you're still in agreement with.

Many believers try to cast out devils while still robbing God (Malachi 3:8–10).

This is spiritual confusion.

When you tithe, you activate:

- Legal ground for deliverance
- Cleansing of household curses
- Covering of income and children
- Divine restoration from generational bondage

Tithers are covenant enforcers. You don't just fight—you execute spiritual justice.

6. When Tithers Enter Spiritual Battles, They Don't Fight Alone

The Bible says:

“If God be for us, who can be against us?” —Romans 8:31

When a tither enters battle, God steps in as legal counsel, Judge, and Warrior.

The battle becomes:

- Unbalanced.
- Unfair—to your enemy.
- Unstoppable—on your behalf.

You stop praying for victory and begin to pray from victory.

7. What Happens in Warfare Without the Tithe

If you are not a tither and you engage in spiritual warfare, you may experience:

- Backlash and counterattack
- Prolonged delay in breakthrough
- Dream visitations from monitoring spirits
- Sudden losses and financial sabotage
- Confusion and spiritual exhaustion

This is not because God doesn't love you. It's because you are not legally positioned to claim the promises.

Obedience is your spiritual passport.

The tithe is your visa into divine protection.

8. Prophetic Warfare Instructions for Tithers

When you are in a spiritual battle and you are a faithful tither:

1. Remind Heaven of Your Covenant

- Say: “Lord, I have returned the tithe. Rebuke the devourer on my behalf.”

2. Prophecy Over the Accuser

- Say: “Every voice accusing me in the realm of the spirit, I cancel you by the blood and by my covenant obedience.”

3. Invoke the Protection of the Storehouse

- Declare: “Because I tithe, I am under the government of the Kingdom. My resources, my family, my destiny are secure.”

4. Command Every Illegitimate Power to Vacate

- Say: “You have no legal right. I am a covenant tither. I break every curse, incantation, and enchantment now.”

9. The Tithe: Your Heavenly Receipt

Imagine a receipt from a store. It proves purchase and authorizes a return if something is wrong.

Likewise, the tithe is your receipt in the spirit.

When the enemy tries to steal, block, or delay—you can present your tithe in the court of Heaven.

It is your proof.

It is your evidence.

It is your voice.

“Then He opened the books...” —Daniel 7:10

Your tithing is written in those books.

10. In This Chapter, Remember:

- Spiritual warfare is legal, not emotional.
- Demons fear those who are under covenant with God.
- Witches and occultists sacrifice—but only tithers have access to Heaven’s court.
- The tithe breaks spiritual contracts, nullifies generational curses, and silences demonic voices.
- Your tithe is your legal receipt, your prophetic covering, and your courtroom defense.
- In battle, your tithe speaks louder than any enemy’s accusation.
- God fights most aggressively for those who obey Him consistently.

Prophetic Declaration for Covenant Authority in Warfare

Heavenly Father,

I thank You that I am not just a believer—I am a covenant keeper.

Through my tithe, I have returned what belongs to You.

Dr Climate Wiseman

I activate Your divine promise: rebuke the devourer for my sake.

I decree:

- Every curse spoken against me is silenced.
- Every altar raised against my destiny is overturned.
- Every delay is broken.
- Every evil monitor is blinded.
- Every demonic case is dismissed.

Because I tithe, I have a right to win.

Because I obey, I cannot be defeated.

Because I honor You, no witch, curse, or hex has power over me.

I am covered.

I am protected.

I am victorious.

In Jesus' mighty name. Amen.

Living Under Open Heaven

“Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse... and see if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour out such a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it.”

—Malachi 3:10

Naming Your Tithe for Specific Miracles

1. What Does It Mean to Live Under an Open Heaven?

To live under an open heaven is to walk daily with undeniable access to divine resources. It means that the distance between Heaven and your life has been spiritually shortened. Revelations come quickly. Answers are not delayed. The power of God flows freely. Breakthroughs are no longer a struggle.

In Malachi 3:10, God says:

“Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse... and see if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour out such a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it.”

This is not just about money.

It's about uninterrupted divine flow.

An open heaven is when:

- Your prayers ascend without resistance.
- God's voice is clear and direct.
- Resources locate you before you ask.
- Healing manifests suddenly and completely.
- Destiny helpers show up at the appointed time.
- Spiritual warfare ends in favor every time.

The open heaven is a state of divine agreement. It is the opposite of brass heavens, where everything feels stuck, silent, and dry.

2. The Closed Heaven: A Result of Disobedience

Deuteronomy 28:23 warns:

“And your heavens which are over your head shall be bronze, and the earth which is under you shall be iron.”

When the heavens are shut:

- Prayers feel blocked.
- Finances dry up.
- Marriages become hard labor.

- Healing is delayed.
- Direction becomes confusing.

This is the spiritual state of many believers who are sincere but not aligned. They may be faithful in church attendance, prayer, and even giving. But without honoring God's portion—the tithe—there is no legal access to the open heaven.

3. The Tithe Unlocks Divine Supply

In the prophetic realm, access is always linked to obedience.

The tithe does not buy a blessing—it activates your right to receive what is already stored up.

Ephesians 1:3 — “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ.”

This means the blessings already exist—but they are held in heavenly places.

The tithe is the divine access code.

It doesn't create new blessings—it releases what is already yours.

4. Tithing for Healing

There are believers who have fasted for healing.

They've cried for deliverance.

But the spiritual root of their affliction is tied to disobedience in the area of finances.

In Malachi 3:11, God promises to rebuke the devourer.

The devourer comes in many forms:

- Disease
- Mental torment
- Unexplained fatigue
- Family plagues
- Generational infirmities

When you tithe faithfully, that rebuke activates—and sickness loses its right to remain.

Case Study:

A woman came to our service with constant migraines and joint pain. She had been to every doctor, every prayer line, every fasting session. Nothing shifted.

During a teaching on tithing, she realized she had never consistently returned the 10%. She began immediately. Within 14 days, all symptoms vanished. No prayer was needed. The curse was broken at the legal level.

The tithe silences affliction by removing demonic access.

5. Tithing for Marriage and Divine Connections

There are people crying out for godly marriage or restored love, but they are financially disconnected from Heaven.

Marriage is not just emotional—it is spiritual infrastructure.

And spiritual things must be approached with order.

Many who tithe faithfully experience sudden divine alignment in relationships:

- Old cycles of toxic love are broken.
- Delays are removed.
- Godly spouses appear by divine orchestration.
- Marital restoration begins where strife once reigned.

Case Study:

A brother sowed faithfully for years, but never tithed. He was successful but deeply lonely. After a teaching on naming the tithe for destiny, he began tithing and naming it for marriage. Within three months, he met the woman who is now his wife—a woman of prayer and prophetic grace. Heaven aligned his desire when he came into obedience.

God does not withhold good things—He withholds covenant from the disobedient.

6. Tithing for Destiny and Purpose

Your tithe doesn't just release money—it activates clarity.

Many people are confused about their calling. They lack focus. They go in circles. Why?

Because the devourer doesn't just attack money—he attacks purpose.

When you tithe, you enter into divine alignment, and the confusion lifts.

- Doors open that match your assignment.
- Ideas begin to flow.
- Discernment sharpens.
- The right mentors, networks, and opportunities appear.

7. Naming Your Tithe: A Prophetic Act

In Genesis 4, Abel brought the firstborn of his flock and fat portions—he didn’t give casually. He gave intentionally.

Genesis 4:4 – “And Abel also brought an offering—fat portions from some of the firstborn of his flock. The Lord looked with favor on Abel and his offering.”

Intentional giving gets God’s attention.

That is why every time you tithe, you should name your tithe.

You don’t just drop it and walk away. You prophesy over it:

- “This is my tithe for marital breakthrough.”
- “This is my tithe for business expansion.”
- “This is my tithe for healing.”
- “This is my tithe for divine visibility and favour.”
- “This is my tithe for the salvation of my household.”
- “This is my tithe for open doors in ministry.”
- “This is my tithe to silence the devourer.”

Naming your tithe is not manipulation—it is prophetic direction.

You are declaring in the spirit what you expect Heaven to release.

8. Prophetic Protocol: How to Name Your Tithe

When you return the tithe, follow this sequence:

1. Set it aside first – Don't wait to be moved. Obey immediately.
2. Speak over it – Use your mouth as a prophetic weapon.
3. Declare God's Word – Attach a promise (e.g., Malachi 3:10, Ephesians 1:3, Proverbs 3:9–10).
4. Name your expectation – Speak what you are activating (e.g., healing, marriage, restoration).
5. Present it in worship – Don't drop it like a bill. Lift it with reverence.

9. Living in the Overflow: Real-Life Impact

Tithers around the world have sent in testimonies of:

- Debt cancellation
- Unexplained job offers
- Marital healing
- Sudden deliverance from infirmity
- Court cases dismissed
- Children turning back to God

Why?

Because when the heavens are open, nothing is withheld.

10. Your New Lifestyle Under Open Heaven

Living under an open heaven means:

- You never live in lack, even in hard times.
- You hear God clearly.
- You see miracles regularly.
- You walk in honor and divine visibility.
- You command favor in places others struggle.
- You receive divine health.
- You attract destiny connections.
- You live prophetically aligned.

This is not for a season—it is a lifestyle.

A tither's lifestyle.

Prophetic Confession: Living Under Open Heaven

Heavenly Father,

I thank You that because I tithe, the heavens are open over my life.

I walk in divine alignment.

I live under supernatural flow.

I am not delayed. I am not blocked. I am not dry.

I speak to every area of my life—be fruitful, be healed, be favored.

Because I name my tithe:

Covenant Wealth

- My healing manifests.
- My marriage is restored.
- My purpose is revealed.
- My doors are opened.
- My household is blessed.
- My enemies are silenced.

I decree:

I do not live under brass heavens.

I am under the open heaven of covenant.

And no devourer can access what God has preserved for me.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Seven Blessings of the Tither

The Divine Reward of Obedience

When a believer faithfully returns the tithe to God, something extraordinary is released. Tithing is not just a command—it is a covenant transaction. It engages heaven's legal system to respond on your behalf.

Malachi 3:10–12 doesn't just talk about one blessing. It unveils a divine chain reaction—a series of blessings that follow every tither who walks in obedience.

God doesn't ask you to tithe and then leave you empty. He ties your obedience to seven supernatural outcomes that transform your spiritual, physical, and generational reality.

Let's walk through these seven covenant blessings.

1. Favor: The Uncommon Wind of Approval

Tithing releases favor, the invisible force that makes people say yes to you even when you're not qualified. Favor places you in rooms your resume could not. It connects you with opportunities no application could reach.

Psalm 5:12 – “For You, O Lord, will bless the righteous; with favor You will surround him as with a shield.”

Tithers are marked with divine favor. It becomes a spiritual aura—attracting open doors, divine connections, and uncommon help.

Testimony:

A young woman in our ministry had been overlooked for promotions. She began tithing faithfully and naming her tithe for “uncommon favor.” Within 60 days, not only was she promoted, but her boss recommended her for a national leadership program.

Tithing doesn't bribe God—it aligns you with His approval.

2. Protection: Rebuking the Devourer

Malachi 3:11 – “And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes.”

The devourer comes in many forms:

- Sickness
- Legal issues
- Accidents
- Stolen opportunities

- Witchcraft attacks
- Unexpected bills
- Relationship sabotage

When you tithe, God Himself becomes your defense attorney. He does not just send angels—He personally rebukes the devourer.

This rebuke is not soft. In Hebrew, “rebuke” means to scold, cripple, and restrain. That means when you tithe, the enemy’s access is not just blocked—it is violently shut down.

Testimony:

A man was under severe legal attack. Out of fear, he began tithing correctly and prophetically. Just two weeks later, the entire case was dropped with no explanation. He later found out that the accuser had mysteriously withdrawn.

3. Provision: Pouring Out Blessings Without Measure

Malachi 3:10 – “See if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows.”

When the windows of heaven open, there is no room to contain what comes.

Provision from tithing is not limited to:

- Salary increases
- Debt cancellation
- Business contracts
- Land acquisition
- Property release

- Supernatural groceries and fuel

It includes supernatural provision in every season, including famine.

Philippians 4:19 – “My God shall supply all your needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.”

Provision flows when the tithe is returned—not because you deserve it, but because it’s covenant law.

4. Access: Entrance into Supernatural Realms

Tithing grants spiritual and physical access.

- Access to wisdom others don’t hear
- Access to realms of prayer others cannot reach
- Access to angelic activity
- Access to divine favor in governments, institutions, and foreign lands

Proverbs 18:16 – “A man’s gift makes room for him and brings him before great men.”

Your tithe acts as a spiritual key. It opens gates that others knock on for years.

Testimony:

A man was denied a visa seven times. After hearing a teaching on prophetic tithing, he returned the tithe and named it for “immigration access.” Three weeks later, he received not just a visa—but a green card invitation.

5. Revelation: Prophetic Insight and Divine Instruction

The tither walks under a spiritual light. Their ears are sharper. Their dreams are clearer. The Bible opens up like a scroll. Prophetic accuracy begins to increase.

John 16:13 – “He will guide you into all truth.”

When you tithe, Heaven begins to trust you with secrets.

- You'll know who to marry.
- You'll sense when to invest.
- You'll discern real friends from fake ones.
- You'll detect witchcraft before it strikes.
- You'll hear God in the quiet.

Tithers walk with divine intelligence.

6. Overflow: The Blessing Multiplies Beyond You

Tithing is not the end—it is the beginning of overflow.

Luke 6:38 – “Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over...”

Overflow means:

- Your house is filled.
- You begin to bless others.
- You fund kingdom projects.
- You no longer check the price tag before you obey God.

Overflow is not greedy. It is purposeful. It positions you to sponsor the gospel, elevate the poor, and fund revival.

Testimony:

One of our partners started tithing when he only had £100 per week. Within two years, he was funding church crusades and building a school in Kenya. He didn't get a sudden lottery win—he lived the tither's overflow journey.

7. Legacy: Generational Blessing and Preservation

Tithing doesn't stop with you. It travels through your bloodline.

Psalms 112:2 – “His descendants will be mighty on earth; the generation of the upright will be blessed.”

When you tithe, your children inherit:

- Favor they didn't earn
- Doors they didn't knock on
- Safety they didn't fight for
- Wealth they didn't work for
- Purpose they didn't search long for

Your obedience plants them into prophetic acceleration.

Testimony:

A tither's son survived a major accident without a scratch. The police officer told her, “I don't know what saved him. The car is destroyed, but he walked out.” She lifted her receipt and whispered, “The tithe.”

Summary: The Tither’s 7 Blessings

1. Favor – You are surrounded like a shield.
2. Protection – God personally rebukes the devourer.
3. Provision – Heaven’s windows open above you.
4. Access – You walk into rooms and realms reserved for covenant keepers.
5. Revelation – You live with divine insight and prophetic clarity.
6. Overflow – What you receive cannot be contained.
7. Legacy – Your seed inherits your obedience.

Prophetic Confession: I Receive the Sevenfold Blessing

Father, I thank You that as I return the tithe, I activate every covenant blessing.

I walk in divine favor.

I live under protection.

Provision follows me.

I have access to doors no man can shut.

My ears are open to divine instruction.

My life overflows with blessings.

And my children will rise higher than I ever did.

Covenant Wealth

I will not be robbed.

I will not live in cycles.

I will not struggle in silence.

The blessing of the tither is alive in me.

And it shall speak for me—forever.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

What Is First Fruits?

“Honour the Lord with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops.”

—Proverbs 3:9

The “First” of the Increase Belongs to God

A Forgotten but Powerful Key

Many believers understand tithing. Some understand offerings. But few grasp the prophetic mystery of First Fruits. This is not just another giving principle—it is a spiritual law that governs increase, order, and honour in the Kingdom of God.

Proverbs 3:9 – “Honour the Lord with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops.”

Exodus 23:19 – “Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of the Lord your God.”

These scriptures aren't suggestions—they are divine protocols.

First Fruits is not a fundraiser—it's a covenant appointment.

When you honour God with the first, you set the rhythm of supernatural harvests for everything that follows.

What Are First Fruits?

The First Fruits offering is the first and best portion of any increase that comes into your life. In the Old Testament, it was the first part of the harvest—the first sheaf, the first born of livestock, the first income of a new season.

It is not about amount—it is about order.

- The first salary of the year
- The first profit from a business launch
- The first income after a long period of lack
- The first fruit of any new stream that God opens

God claims the first because He is first.

Leviticus 27:30 – “A tithe of everything from the land... belongs to the Lord; it is holy to the Lord.”

And yet, while the tithe is 10%, the First Fruit is not always a fixed percentage. It is the first portion, often the entire first, that declares to heaven: “This belongs to You.”

Why Does God Ask for the First?

1. It's a Test of Honour

Proverbs 3:9–10 connects First Fruits with honour.

God doesn't need our money—but He requires our obedience. The first portion tests whether we trust God as the Source, or just acknowledge Him as an emergency option.

First Fruits says:

- “I don't know what the rest of the year holds, but I trust You with it.”
- “Before I spend on myself, I honour You.”

2. It Sanctifies the Rest

Romans 11:16 – “If the first is holy, then the whole lump is holy.”

The First Fruit offering cleanses, secures, and releases a prophetic covering over everything that follows. When the first is given, the rest is protected and empowered.

It's a mystery: Whatever you dedicate first, governs the outcome.

3. It Activates Supernatural Increase

Ezekiel 44:30 – “The best of all the firstfruits... will cause a blessing to rest on your household.”

This is not a one-time miracle. It is a resting, resident, ongoing blessing that marks your home, your name, your family, and your future.

The Difference Between Tithe and First Fruits

Tithe	First Fruits
10% of all income	The first and best portion of a new increase
Recurring, consistent	Occasional, at new beginnings or cycles
Represents obedience	Represents honour and devotion
Brings protection	Releases overflow and direction
Belongs to God	Offered voluntarily with reverence

Understanding this distinction is key. Many tithe but don't experience the acceleration that First Fruits releases. That's because First Fruits is about prophetic positioning, not just obligation.

First Fruits in the Old Testament

- Abel and Cain (Genesis 4:3–5): Abel brought the firstborn; Cain brought just an offering. God accepted Abel's but rejected Cain's. Why? Because God doesn't bless leftovers.
- Israel's Harvests: God instructed Israel to never touch the new harvest until the first sheaf was presented. (Leviticus 23:10)
- The Promised Land: The moment Israel entered Canaan, the first fruit of the land—Jericho—was to be devoted to the Lord. (Joshua 6:17–19)

First Fruits in the New Testament

First Fruits was not abolished under grace. Paul refers to Christ as the First Fruit of resurrection (1 Corinthians 15:20). Believers are called the first fruits of salvation (James 1:18). The principle of giving God the first continues spiritually.

In Acts 4, the early church sold lands and brought the first proceeds to the apostles' feet. As a result, great grace and power rested on them.

How to Practically Honour God with First Fruits

1. Discern the Start of a New Season

- First job
- First salary of the year
- First profit from a new business
- First harvest from a new land

2. Set It Aside as Holy

- Don't spend it. Don't touch it.
- Pray over it. Declare it is God's.

3. Bring It to the House of God

- First Fruits must be laid before God in His sanctuary.
- This is not for casual giving—it's a sacred act.

4. Name It with Prophetic Intention

- "This is my First Fruit for marital alignment."
- "This is my First Fruit for debt-free living."
- "This is my First Fruit for apostolic promotion."

5. Release It in Joy and Reverence

- No manipulation. No pressure.
- Do it from a heart of love, trust, and obedience.

Testimonies of First Fruits Miracles

1. Healing Released

A woman was diagnosed with a tumor. As a prophetic act, she gave her First Fruit salary for healing. Two weeks later, the MRI showed the growth had disappeared.

2. Divine Relocation

A couple sowed the First Fruit of their property sale before moving abroad. Visas were released within 72 hours—after 18 months of delay.

3. Restoration of Marriage

A husband who had walked out on his family unexpectedly returned home after the wife gave her First Fruit to God for restoration. She said, “I honoured God first. He restored what I had lost.”

Prophetic Insights on First Fruits

- First Fruits shifts timelines. What should take years happens in months.
- First Fruits replaces toil with favour.
- First Fruits commands angelic attention.
- First Fruits anchors your year with divine order.

It is not about “paying God.” It is about aligning with Heaven’s rhythm.

Conclusion: The First Belongs to God

First Fruits is not an ancient agricultural idea—it is a living, spiritual law that activates divine honour, order, and increase.

When you release the first, you declare:

“God, You are first. You are Lord over my increase. You are Master of my year.”

It is one of the most powerful ways to seal your breakthrough, redeem your future, and command generational overflow.

Prophetic Declaration: I Give God My First

Father, I honour You with the first of my increase.

I refuse to give You leftovers. I refuse to delay my obedience.

I declare that my First Fruits are holy.

As I release them, I welcome Your rest, Your reign, and Your reward.

Let this First Fruit speak for my destiny.

Let it go ahead of me and open what no man can shut.

I command this year to align with Heaven.

Let my harvest be holy, my house be blessed, and my heart be clean. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

How First Fruits Is Different from Tithes & Offerings

Three Rivers of Honour

In the Kingdom of God, giving is not one-size-fits-all. Many believers have been taught about tithing, and some are familiar with offering. But the First Fruits principle remains a hidden mystery to most.

These three expressions of giving—First Fruits, Tithe, and Offering—are distinct in purpose, timing, and prophetic function. They are not interchangeable. When you confuse them, you block the specific blessing each one is designed to release.

Each one opens a different spiritual gate.

Proverbs 3:9 – “Honour the Lord with your substance, and with the firstfruits of all your increase.”

Malachi 3:10 – “Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse... and see if I will not throw open the windows of heaven...”

2 Corinthians 9:7 – “Each one must give as he has decided in his heart... for God loves a cheerful giver.”

Let’s explore each one fully.

The First Fruits: The Seed of New Beginnings

Definition

The First Fruit is the first portion of any new increase. It is not about percentage—it is about priority.

Examples:

- First salary of the year
- First profit of a new business
- First rent from a new property
- First harvest from new farmland

Spiritual Purpose

The First Fruit:

- Honours God as the source of the season
- Secures the rest of the harvest
- Sanctifies and redeems the remainder
- Acts as a prophetic dedication of what is to come

Romans 11:16 – “If the first part of the dough is holy, then the whole batch is holy.”

First Fruits is about giving God the first to bless the rest.

Frequency

It is occasional—only at new beginnings or new streams of income. It is not weekly or monthly.

Biblical Examples

- Abel vs. Cain (Genesis 4:3–5)
- Jericho's spoils (Joshua 6)
- Harvest feasts (Exodus 23, Leviticus 23)

What It Unlocks

- Divine favour and direction for the year
- Blessing that rests on your household (Ezekiel 44:30)
- New access, promotion, and divine speed

The Tithe: The Covenant Claim

Definition

The tithe is the first 10% of all regular income. It is not the first fruit, nor is it a random gift. It is a fixed obligation of covenant.

Spiritual Purpose

The tithe:

- Represents your covenant alignment
- Invokes God's protection and rebuke of the devourer
- Maintains the storehouse (the local church or altar of service)
- Activates financial obedience and trust

Malachi 3:10–11 – “Bring the full tithe... I will rebuke the devourer for your sake.”

Tithing declares: “God, You are my Provider and my Defender.”

Frequency

Tithing is ongoing—any time there is increase or income. This could be weekly, monthly, or per project.

Biblical Examples

- Abraham tithed to Melchizedek (Genesis 14)
- Jacob vowed a tithe to God (Genesis 28:22)
- Jesus acknowledged tithing in the New Testament (Matthew 23:23)

What It Unlocks

- Open heavens
- Divine rebuke against devourers
- Consistent, covenant-level provision
- Long-term stability in financial storms

The Offering: The Love Gift

An offering is a voluntary seed given from your heart as led by the Spirit. It is not fixed by law but guided by love.

Examples:

- Thanksgiving offering
- Seed of honour

- Sacrifice in worship
- Gift to a prophet or church mission

Spiritual Purpose

Offerings:

- Express worship and gratitude
- Support God's work in unique ways
- Unlock personal harvests based on faith
- Demonstrate your generosity and maturity

2 Corinthians 9:6–7 – “Whoever sows sparingly will reap sparingly... God loves a cheerful giver.”

Offerings reveal your heart posture, not your financial consistency.

Frequency

Offerings are occasional or frequent—you give as led, inspired, or moved. No rule, but divine opportunities.

Biblical Examples

- The widow's mite (Luke 21:1–4)
- David's altar (2 Samuel 24:24)
- The Philippian church supporting Paul (Philippians 4:18)

What It Unlocks

- Customised miracles
- Joyful harvests
- Divine attention from Heaven

- Multiplication beyond logic

Key Distinctions at a Glance

Type	What	When	Purpose	Blessing Unlocked
First Fruit	First of new season or increase	Beginning of cycle or stream	Honour & dedication	Blessing rests on the year
Tithe	10% of all increase	Every time there's income	Covenant protection	Rebuke of devourer, open heaven
Offering	Voluntary, as led	Anytime	Worship, generosity	Harvests, favour, joy

What Happens When You Confuse the Three

Confusion leads to:

- Stagnant finances (mixing tithe and offering cancels covenant rights)
- Missed moments (ignoring First Fruits delays destiny)
- Exhaustion without harvest (giving without direction or understanding)

Satan's tactic is to confuse what God has distinctly ordained.

Real-Life Case Studies

1. A Business Stuck for Years

A man tithed consistently but saw no progress. Through prophetic counsel, he discovered he had never given First Fruits. After giving the First Fruit of a new contract, clients flooded in, and his business expanded into 3 nations in 6 months.

2. Tithing Without Offerings

A woman gave her tithe but withheld offerings, thinking they were optional. When she began giving sacrificial offerings during worship, supernatural favour followed. Her immigration status was resolved, and her son received a full scholarship.

3. Offering With No Tithe

A young professional gave often at conferences and special events but never tithed. She stayed in cycles of lack. Once she repented and began honouring the tithe, her job was secured, and doors opened in unexpected places.

Prophetic Wisdom: You Need All Three

Each one has a role:

- First Fruits launches your season
- Tithe maintains your covering
- Offering expands your harvest

Together, they form a threefold cord of financial dominion.

When you operate in all three consistently and with revelation, you begin to live under sustained, supernatural provision. Not just miracles—but momentum.

Final Thought: Give with Revelation, Not Religion

God doesn't want mindless giving. He wants prophetic givers—those who understand what, when, and why they sow.

When you give First Fruits, Tithe, and Offering in the right way and at the right time, you:

- Secure your future
- Command your atmosphere
- Build a legacy of wealth and worship

This is not prosperity gospel—it is covenant truth.

Prophetic Activation Prayer

Father, I thank You for wisdom and order in my giving.

I will no longer operate in confusion or fear.

Teach me to discern when to give First Fruits, when to tithe, and when to sow offerings.

Let each one speak for me in the courts of Heaven.

I declare that my finances are in alignment with divine law.

Let every window of Heaven open. Let every devourer be rebuked.

Let favour rest on my house, my year, and my destiny.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

Why the First Determines the Rest

“If the part of the dough offered as firstfruits is holy, then the whole batch is holy; if the root is holy, so are the branches.”

—Romans 11:16

The Mystery of the First

In the divine order of God, firsts always carry authority. From the first light spoken in Genesis to the first fruit presented at the altar, the beginning of a thing has the power to determine the outcome of everything that follows.

Romans 11:16 – “If the part of the dough offered as firstfruits is holy, then the whole batch is holy; if the root is holy, so are the branches.”

This passage reveals a mystery: the first sets the tone, the spirit, and the result of what follows. If the first is aligned with God, the rest falls under divine order and blessing.

The First Is Holy — But Only If It's Given

Holiness is not passive. In biblical terms, to be holy means to be set apart and dedicated to God. The first fruit, tithe, or increase only becomes holy when you act on it.

This is not about superstition or tradition. It is about divine alignment.

When the first is given, not consumed, and is presented properly, it declares, “God is first.” That act alone causes God to mark the remainder for blessing, protection, and multiplication.

God's Command: Put It in the Priest's Hand

Deuteronomy 26:1–4 (NKJV):

“...you shall take some of the first of all the produce of the ground... and put it in a basket and go to the place where the Lord your God chooses... Then the priest shall take the basket out of your hand and set it down before the altar of the Lord your God.”

This is not optional. It is a protocol of honour.

Why did God command this?

- Personal recognition: You don't just send it. You hand it.
- Priestly transfer: The priest represents God. Giving to him is giving to the altar.
- Blessing activation: The priest would speak a prophetic blessing over the giver (Deut 26:5–10).

Even though the physical basket was filled with grain, oil, or livestock, what truly mattered was who received it. The transfer of ownership happened by placing it into the priest's hand.

Why the First Determines the Rest

The first has always carried spiritual weight:

- The first day of the week (Sunday) was set apart for worship.
- The firstborn of man and beast belonged to the Lord.
- The first portion of increase was to be brought to the house of the Lord.
- Even Jesus is called the Firstborn among many brethren (Romans 8:29).

Why does this matter? Because when the first is handled correctly:

- The rest is automatically blessed.
- The covenant is activated.
- Your year, income, household, and harvest come under divine preservation.

Real Examples That Prove the Principle

A. The First Pay Cheque

A woman in London once brought her entire first pay cheque after landing her first job post-university. She placed it into the hand of her pastor. That same year, she received an unexpected scholarship, a visa extension, and a marriage proposal.

B. The First Business Sale

A young man launched a small design business. The first project brought in £900 profit. He honoured God with it by presenting it in person to the altar. Within 45 days, he signed a contract with an international client worth over £25,000.

C. Firstborn Breakthrough

One mother dedicated her firstborn son during a Sunday service, sowing a First Fruit seed in his name. That same year, he overcame severe learning disabilities and excelled in school.

Why the Hand of the Priest Matters

In the Old Testament, the priest was God's authorized receiver.

- Numbers 18:8–13 – God gave all the First Fruits to Aaron (the high priest) as a perpetual statute.
- Ezekiel 44:30 – “The first of all the firstfruits... shall be for the priest, to cause a blessing to rest on your house.”

The blessing is not triggered simply by giving—but by giving to the right hands.

Today, in the New Covenant, the spirit of this act continues. While Jesus is our ultimate High Priest (Hebrews 7), your local pastor or prophet—who feeds you spiritually and watches over your soul—now stands in that place of representation.

When you place your First Fruit in their hand (or send it deliberately to their altar), the same priestly anointing activates the blessing.

Spiritual Warfare Over the First

The enemy always targets the first:

- The firstborn of Egypt died in judgment.
- Cain failed to offer the first and was rejected.
- Achan stole the first spoils of Jericho and brought defeat to Israel.

Satan knows: if he can corrupt the first, he can curse the rest.

This is why your first decisions, first income, first relationship, or first act in a new season must be spiritually secured.

Prophetic Activations: How to Handle the First

1. Set It Apart

Before spending or investing anything new, ask: What is the first? Identify it.

2. Place It in the Priest's Hand

If in person, physically present it. If digitally, do it with prayer and recognition.

3. Speak the Covenant Confession

Declare:

“Lord, I honour You with the first. Because the first is holy, the rest is blessed. Let this gift cause a blessing to rest upon my house. In Jesus’ name.”

4. Receive the Blessing

If your prophet or pastor prays over you—receive it. If not, you as head of your home can declare the priestly blessing.

Final Thought: Don't Touch the First Until It's Given

One of the greatest mistakes believers make is consuming their First Fruits—or their tithe—before it is presented to God.

- It is not yours to spend.
- It must be transferred by honour.
- The power is in the presentation.

If you delay giving the first, you delay the blessing.

If you defile the first, you frustrate your future.

Let the first speak for you.

Prophetic Confession: Securing the Rest Through the First

Father, today I recognise You as the source of all increase.

Covenant Wealth

I bring You the first—first of my time, income, strength, and substance.

As I place it into the hands of Your servant and Your altar,

Let the rest of my income be sanctified.

Let my family walk under divine preservation.

Let my business, health, and destiny experience increase.

Because the first is holy, the rest is blessed.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

How to Present Your First Fruits

Presentation Unlocks Power

Many believers have heard of the First Fruits principle. Fewer understand the prophetic presentation of it. First Fruits is not just about giving—it's about how you give, when you give, and to whom you give.

You can have the right seed but miss the harvest if you violate the spiritual laws of presentation.

The First Fruit is sacred. It is a holy act of divine honour and covenant alignment.

Timing: The Law of Prompt Release

Timing in the realm of First Fruits is everything. The law is simple:

The first must be given first. Not second. Not later. Not eventually.

When you receive a new stream of income—a first pay cheque, a first contract, the first increase of the year, the first harvest—you must respond immediately.

Biblical Example: Proverbs 3:9–10

“Honour the Lord with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops; then your barns will be filled to overflowing...”

Notice that "firstfruits" is mentioned before the overflowing barns.

Why Timing Matters Spiritually:

- It signals priority.
- It shows that God is your Source, not your salary.
- It prevents delay, loss, or devourers from contaminating your harvest.

The moment the first enters your hands, it must go to God.

Attitude: Presenting with Honour and Joy

Your posture and attitude matter just as much as the gift.

The First Fruit must be given with:

- Reverence — Not flippantly or casually.
- Gratitude — It's a celebration of new beginnings.
- Faith — Believing that what you're doing triggers divine order.

Deuteronomy 26:10–11 shows the full ritual of First Fruits:

“And now I bring the firstfruits of the soil that you, Lord, have given me. Place the basket before the Lord... Then you and the Levites and the foreigners residing among you shall rejoice...”

God commanded them not only to give, but to rejoice when giving. Why?

Because First Fruits is not a tax—it’s a prophetic transaction that guarantees future provision.

Prophetic Declarations: Speaking Over Your First Fruits

Words are not optional when you present First Fruits—they are essential.

Just like in Deuteronomy 26, you are required to speak over it.

Jesus said: “The words I speak to you are spirit and life.” (John 6:63)

Paul said: “I believed, and therefore I spoke.” (2 Corinthians 4:13)

Declaration Example:

“Father, I honour You with my First Fruit. I acknowledge You as the One who gave me this new beginning. As I give this holy portion, I sanctify the rest of my income, my career, and my future. Because the first is holy, the rest is blessed. I shall lack no good thing. My barn shall be filled. My land shall produce. Favour shall locate me. In Jesus’ name!”

Testimony: My First Fruit Miracle

Let me now share my own story. Years ago, I was working as a truck driver, employed only part-time through an agency. It was not glamorous. There were no guarantees. Work came in short shifts, and pay was minimal.

Then I heard the Holy Spirit speak to me clearly:

“This is your first job in this field. Pay Me the entire first cheque. Place it into the altar. Don't delay.”

I obeyed. Though it was tight financially, I gave my entire first pay cheque as a First Fruit offering.

What happened next changed my life:

- Within a few days, I was called in for a full-time position.
- My new job came with unexpected favour from management.
- I was given free training and professional driving courses I could never afford on my own.
- I began to receive advanced driving certifications—doors that normally required long waits and connections opened rapidly for me.
- Even my supervisor went out of his way to recommend me and protect my position.

It wasn't just favour—it was supernatural endorsement.

That single First Fruit offering shifted my season.

Prophetic Protocol: How to Present First Fruits Today

A. Separate It Quickly

Do not use it, spend it, or mix it. Once it enters your account, extract it. Set it aside.

B. Present It Physically or Prophetic

If you're in a church or ministry that understands the principle, place it in the priest's hand (Deuteronomy 26:4).

If giving online, declare the prophetic transfer as you sow. Speak over it, and write "First Fruit" in the memo.

C. Declare Over It

Speak a blessing—call forth the harvest. Declare what you're sanctifying:

- "I present this for my business expansion..."
- "I present this for the year's protection..."
- "I present this for open doors in marriage..."

D. Rejoice

Don't give with anxiety. Give with expectation and joy—knowing God is faithful.

The Blessing That Follows

God's Word guarantees that First Fruits activate:

- Overflow (Proverbs 3:9–10)
- Household blessing (Ezekiel 44:30)

- Divine recognition (Romans 11:16)
- Preservation from loss (Nehemiah 10:35–39)

The harvest doesn't always come immediately—but when it comes, it will make up for every waiting season.

Special Note: Don't Delay the Presentation

Leviticus 23:10–14 – God warned the Israelites not to eat of their harvest until the First Fruit was presented.

Many people miss breakthrough because they spend the first and then give later. That's not First Fruit—that's second fruit.

If you delay your obedience, you may delay your elevation.

Final Confession Over Your First Fruit

Father, I thank You for new beginnings.

I honour You with the first.

I declare this as my First Fruit in this new season.

Let the remaining portion of my income, career, business, and strength be sanctified.

I call in favour, access, overflow, and generational preservation.

Let Your blessing rest on my household.

Because I have given the first, I declare the rest is blessed.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

Understanding the Offering

The Misunderstood Power of the Offering

While the tithe belongs to God as a covenant portion, and First Fruits sanctify new seasons, the offering occupies a different realm entirely. It is a voluntary seed, a prophetic act of love, honour, and trust that speaks volumes in the spirit—even though it is not legally required by the covenant.

Offerings do not pay a spiritual debt.

Offerings are not commanded in a fixed percentage.

Offerings are not calculated—they are revealed by faith and led by the Spirit.

And yet, despite not being required, offerings are one of the most powerful ways to activate increase, open unusual doors, and cause God to remember you.

Tithe, First Fruit, and Offering — Three Separate Realms

To walk in full financial dominion, every believer must understand the distinction between:

- Tithe: 10% of all increase, which belongs to God (Leviticus 27:30). Not optional.
- First Fruit: The first of a new season or stream, offered once to sanctify the rest (Proverbs 3:9).
- Offering: A freewill seed, given as led, to express honour, gratitude, sacrifice, or covenant commitment.

Tithe = Obligation of Covenant

First Fruit = Sanctifier of the New

Offering = Seed of Honour and Breakthrough

All three have value, but the offering alone is your voluntary voice in the Spirit.

Biblical Offerings Were Always Voluntary But Powerful

From Genesis to Revelation, the offering has played a central role in every major move of God.

A. Abel's Offering (Genesis 4:4)

Abel brought the best of his flock to the Lord—not because he was required to, but because he wanted to honour God. His offering was accepted, and he was counted righteous.

B. Solomon's Offering (2 Chronicles 1:6–12)

Solomon gave 1,000 burnt offerings, and God visited him that same night. No one told Solomon to give that amount—but he did it out of honour, and the result was wisdom and wealth.

C. The Widow's Offering (Mark 12:41–44)

She gave two small coins, all she had. Jesus said she gave more than all the rich men. Why? Because her heart and sacrifice outweighed the value.

Offerings Speak — Even After You Forget Them

Offerings are never silent. They speak to heaven. They speak to the altar. And they speak into your future.

Acts 10:4 — Cornelius the Centurion

“Your prayers and your alms (offerings) have come up as a memorial before God.”

Cornelius' giving created a memorial in heaven that triggered angelic visitation, a family outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and one of the greatest Gentile conversions in early church history.

Your offering may leave your hand, but it never leaves your destiny.

The Offering Is a Seed — But Seeds Must Be Sown Intentionally

A farmer never accidentally sows. Every seed is placed with purpose and expectation.

2 Corinthians 9:6–7 – “Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart...”

- Offerings do not have a fixed percentage.
- They are not under compulsion.
- But they are subject to spiritual laws.

What kind of harvest do you want?

- Small seed = small harvest.
- Big seed = big harvest.

The Power of Sacrificial Offerings

There are times when the offering goes beyond comfort and becomes a sacrifice. This is where miracles are birthed.

David said in 2 Samuel 24:24:

“I will not offer to the Lord my God that which costs me nothing.”

Elijah and the Widow of Zarephath (1 Kings 17:8–16)

She gave her last meal to the prophet, and the oil and flour never ran out for the entire famine.

A sacrificial offering does not reduce you—it multiplies you.

Why Offerings Are Not Obligations — But Are Still Required for Breakthrough

Here is the paradox: offerings are not commanded in the same way the tithe is. You are not cursed if you don't give them. But you may remain stagnant, limited, and unre-membered in your giving life.

Offerings are not for legal righteousness. They are for prophetic increase.

Tithing protects your finances. Offerings multiply them.

Tithing brings divine order. Offerings bring divine overflow.

Ministry Offerings: Honouring the Anointing

Many confuse tithing with general church giving. But there is a specific principle in Scripture:

Galatians 6:6 – “Let the one who is taught the word share all good things with the one who teaches.”

Philippians 4:17–19 – Paul said, “You sent me offerings again and again when I was in need... My God shall supply all your needs...”

This is not the tithe. This is offering to the man or woman of God who feeds and blesses your life.

When you honour the anointing, you draw from its grace.

Four Times to Give Offerings That Speak

1. In Moments of Increase

- When God blesses you unexpectedly, sow an offering in response.

2. In Times of Need

- Seed your way out of famine. Don't withhold—invest spiritually.

3. During Divine Visitations

- When a word, a service, or a prophetic moment touches you—seal it with an offering.

4. In Vows and Commitments

- When you make a vow or spiritual promise, always attach an offering (see Ecclesiastes 5:4–6).

Testimonies from Those Who Gave Offerings That Spoke

Breakthrough Business Contract After a Sacrificial Offering

A woman sowed a sacrificial £1,000 offering during a prophetic conference. The very next week, she received a phone call for a contract she had waited 2 years for.

Debt Cancellation Through a Seed

A man sowed a “struggle seed” offering and wrote on the envelope: “This is my last time being broke.” Within a month, three of his debts were supernaturally cancelled.

Final Thought: Don't Ignore the Offering

Many believers tithe faithfully, but give nothing beyond that.

- They wonder why they don't see overflow.
- They tithe and wait, but never offer extra sacrifice.
- Their financial life remains orderly but not abundant.

If the tithe is obedience, the offering is faith and honour.

If the tithe is discipline, the offering is desire and destiny.

Don't rob your future by neglecting the power of voluntary giving.

Prophetic Confession Over Your Offering

Father, I thank You for the opportunity to give.

I give not by force, but by faith.

Let my seed speak in the heavens.

Let this offering open new doors, multiply my harvest, and cause my name to be remembered in high places.

I declare divine surprises, favour, and supernatural provision.

As my seed leaves my hand, it enters my future.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

Different Types of Offerings

Not All Seeds Are the Same

In the natural world, a farmer doesn't plant every seed the same way, nor for the same reason. Some seeds are for quick harvest, others are for long-term yield. Likewise, in the kingdom of God, not all offerings are the same.

Yes, every offering is a seed. But the intent, timing, and spiritual purpose behind each one determines what it activates.

This chapter will show you the five distinct types of offerings, their biblical roots, when to sow them, and how to do so with prophetic precision.

1. Freewill Offerings — The Language of Worship

Definition: A gift given voluntarily out of gratitude, joy, or worship, without being compelled or required.

Deuteronomy 16:10

“Then celebrate the Festival of Weeks to the Lord your God by giving a freewill offering in proportion to the blessings the Lord your God has given you.”

Freewill offerings are:

- Spontaneous acts of honour
- Given during feasts, special services, or moments of divine gratitude
- Often sown in response to personal blessings

When to Give a Freewill Offering:

- After receiving a bonus or breakthrough
- On a birthday or anniversary
- After a miraculous deliverance or answer to prayer

Spiritual Result:

Freewill offerings preserve joy and extend favour in the realm of celebration.

2. Love Offerings — Honouring the Vessel

Definition: A gift given directly to a servant of God in response to the value of the word, revelation, or anointing they bring to your life.

Galatians 6:6

“Let him who is taught the word share in all good things with him who teaches.”

Philippians 4:17–19

Paul told the Philippians, “You sent me aid more than once... my God will supply all your needs.”

Love offerings:

- Are not tithes or church donations
- Are directed to the prophet, apostle, or minister
- Carry the ability to unlock grace and impartation

When to Give a Love Offering:

- After receiving personal prophecy or teaching
- During conferences or honour services
- On a spiritual father or mentor’s birthday

Spiritual Result:

Love offerings draw grace from the one you honour. What’s on them begins to rest on you.

3. Thanksgiving Offerings — Sealing Gratitude with Sacrifice

Definition: An offering that expresses thanks for something God has already done.

Psalms 50:14

“Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving and pay your vows to the Most High.”

Leviticus 7:12

“If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes...”

Thanksgiving offerings:

- Show that you’re not taking God’s mercy for granted
- Acknowledge His faithfulness publicly and spiritually
- Are often tied to healing, deliverance, or preservation

When to Give a Thanksgiving Offering:

- After surviving an accident or illness
- At the end of a successful year
- After a child’s birth, marriage, or graduation

Spiritual Result:

Thanksgiving offerings preserve your blessing and open doors for generational favour.

4. Sacrificial Offerings — When You Need Heaven to Move

Definition: A costly seed that stretches your faith and requires surrender, often in times of urgency, transition, or destiny decisions.

2 Samuel 24:24

David said, “I will not offer to the Lord that which costs me nothing.”

Mark 12:43–44

The widow gave her two coins, and Jesus praised her above all.

Sacrificial offerings:

- Are not about the amount but the cost
- Often represent “Isaac” moments, where you place something precious on the altar
- Trigger divine reversal, intervention, and covenant elevation

When to Give a Sacrificial Offering:

- When facing delay or demonic resistance
- When you need breakthrough at any cost
- At the prompting of the Holy Spirit

Spiritual Result:

Sacrificial offerings accelerate divine intervention, break stagnation, and birth legacy miracles.

5. Prophetic Offerings — Seeding Into a Word or Future

Definition: A seed sown directly into a prophetic word, season, or instruction to claim it and make it manifest.

2 Kings 4:8–10

The Shunammite woman gave to Elisha, and it activated the prophecy of a child.

1 Kings 17:8–16

The widow of Zarephath gave her last meal to Elijah, and it created supernatural provision for her entire household.

Prophetic offerings:

- Respond to a now word from God
- Claim the future by activating it in the present
- Are often accompanied by instructions, declarations, or unusual timing

When to Give a Prophetic Offering:

- After receiving a prophetic word or dream
- When God reveals something you must unlock
- During specific “windows” of opportunity (feasts, fasts, altar services)

Spiritual Result:

Prophetic offerings unlock what has been declared, birth what was spoken, and cancel satanic delay.

When and How to Sow Intentionally

A. Follow the Leading of the Holy Spirit

Not all giving seasons are the same. Ask:

“Lord, what type of offering is required for this season?”

B. Name Your Seed

Don't sow blindly. Be intentional. Write the purpose of your seed:

- "Healing for my child"
- "Debt cancellation"
- "Open door in business"

C. Choose the Right Soil

Not every ground bears the same fruit. Give where:

- The altar is living and prophetic
- Miracles are active
- You're spiritually fed and covered

D. Guard the Seed with Prayer and Confession

Speak over it until you see it manifest. Water it with faith, praise, and obedience.

Final Thought: Every Offering Has a Voice

Offerings are not just transactions. They are conversations with eternity.

Your offerings:

- Build memorials (Acts 10:4)
- Trigger multiplication (2 Corinthians 9)
- Seal your testimony (Psalm 50:23)
- Shift the verdict in your favour (Genesis 8:20–22)

Never underestimate what one intentional offering can unlock.

Prophetic Confession Over Your Offerings

Father, I thank You for the privilege to sow.

I will give with purpose, honour, and faith.

I will not give casually—I will give prophetically.

Let every offering I sow speak on my behalf.

May it build a memorial in heaven, shift my season, and open the next chapter of my life.

I declare that every seed I sow will produce a harvest.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

How to Know What to Give as an Offering

The Offering That Changes Everything

One of the most common questions believers ask is:

“How much should I give?”

The answer is not found in a formula, but in fellowship.

God does not want robotic giving—He desires relationship-led sowing. The offerings that bring the greatest breakthrough are not always the biggest, but those that are prophetically instructed and spiritually aligned.

In this chapter, we will explore how to hear God’s voice when giving, recognize prophetic moments, and respond with intentional obedience.

The Holy Spirit Is the Giver's Guide

Romans 8:14

“For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.”

If you are led by the Spirit in other areas (prayer, relationships, decisions), why not in your giving?

The Holy Spirit can reveal:

- What to give
- When to give it
- Where to sow
- To whom the offering is assigned
- What to name your seed

He knows the exact seed that will unlock the next level in your life.

Example:

There were moments I only had £5, and the Holy Spirit instructed me to sow it. That seed became the open door for unexpected favour, free resources, or divine connection.

Holy Spirit-led giving is the bridge between your present lack and your future harvest.

Emotional Giving vs. Spirit-Led Sowing

Not every giving opportunity is from God. Some are emotional appeals. Others are guilt-based manipulation. You must discern the difference.

Emotional giving:

- Responds to pressure
- Feels urgent but lacks peace
- Often leads to regret

Spirit-led giving:

- Carries divine peace and confirmation
- May stretch your faith, but not your dignity
- Produces prophetic results

Guard Your Heart:

2 Corinthians 9:7

“Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion...”

Let your heart be led by the Spirit, not driven by fear.

Prophetic Giving: When God Tells You the Amount

There are moments when God gives a specific instruction. It may be unusual, sacrificial, or even confrontational to your logic.

These moments are portals to breakthrough.

Biblical Example – Abraham (Genesis 22:2):

“Take now your son, your only son Isaac... and offer him.”

That seed didn’t make sense—but it created a covenant so powerful, it still speaks to this day.

My Testimony:

The first time I gave an entire week's wages was when the Holy Spirit impressed it during a night service. I felt fear at first, but also overwhelming peace. That week, doors opened for me that had been closed for years. I received favour from strangers, promotions from supervisors, and mentorship I didn't ask for.

Signs You're in a Moment of Prophetic Giving

Watch for these indicators that the Holy Spirit is prompting you to sow:

A. A Word Hits Your Spirit

You hear a sermon or prophecy and feel an inner conviction:

"That word is for me. I must respond."

B. An Instruction Resurfaces Again and Again

The idea to sow a particular amount or item won't leave you.

That's the Spirit knocking.

C. Unusual Warfare Follows a Seed Thought

The moment you think of sowing, warfare begins—doubt, delay, fear. That's a sign the devil knows the seed is dangerous.

D. A Holy Prompting to Act Quickly

You feel urgency—not fear—but a divine pressure to sow while the window is open.

Delayed obedience is often disobedience in the realm of prophetic giving.

How to Discern the Right Amount to Give

There's no formula, but here are practical steps to let the Holy Spirit speak:

A. Begin in Prayer

Ask, "Lord, what offering do You desire from me in this moment?"

B. Listen for Impressions

It may be a figure, a percentage, an item, or even something dear like a watch, clothing, phone, or car.

C. Confirm with Peace

If God speaks, it may challenge you, but it won't confuse or condemn you.

D. Sow Promptly

The longer you delay, the more doubt grows. Sow while the faith is fresh.

Examples of Prophetic Offerings in Scripture

The Shunammite Woman (2 Kings 4:8–17):

She gave a prophet a room—her offering made room for her miracle: a child.

The Widow at Zarephath (1 Kings 17:8–16):

Her last meal, sown into Elijah's instruction, brought perpetual supply.

Mary and the Alabaster Box (Mark 14:3–9):

Her perfume was worth a year's wages. Jesus said, "Wherever this gospel is preached, what she did will be told..."

Prophetic offerings may be costly, but they birth legacy-level impact.

What If You Don't Hear a Clear Amount?

That's okay. When no number is revealed, start with these questions:

- What represents honour to God in this moment?
- What stretches my faith but is within my reach?
- What will seal this word in my spirit?
- What would make me feel like I've given, not just tipped?

Let honour and expectation determine your seed.

A harvest never outgrows the honour behind the seed.

Why Some Offerings Work for Others But Not You

You may see someone sow £10 and get a miracle. You copy the amount—and nothing happens.

Why?

Because it was their word, their obedience, their altar.

Seed without instruction is donation.

Seed with instruction becomes prophecy.

That's why Spirit-led giving works. You're not guessing—you're obeying.

Things That Hinder Prophetic Giving

A. Fear of Loss

The enemy tells you: "You can't afford to give."

But heaven responds: "You can't afford not to."

B. Waiting for "More"

If you don't obey now, you won't obey later.

Luke 16:10 – "He who is faithful in little will be faithful in much."

C. Offense at the Message of Giving

If your heart gets hard every time giving is mentioned, you may have a stronghold in the area of provision.

Final Thought: God Knows the Seed That Breaks the Cycle

There's always a seed that:

- Ends the delay
- Cancels the attack
- Unlocks the next door

The key is not guessing that seed—but hearing it.

Ask the Lord:

“What seed do You require for the breakthrough I desire?”

That is the offering that speaks louder than words, faster than prayers, and deeper than tears.

Prophetic Confession Over Spirit-Led Giving

Holy Spirit, speak to me.

I want to give what You desire—not what’s convenient.

I open my ears to divine instruction.

I resist fear and delay.

I declare this offering will hit the mark, break the cycle, and release the harvest.

My giving will not be emotional—it will be prophetic.

I give in faith. I give in honour. I give in obedience.

And I expect a supernatural return. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

Where You Tithe and Sow Matters

The Mystery of the Soil

You can plant the right seed, with the right heart, and even the right timing—but if the soil is dead, your harvest will be delayed, corrupted, or devoured.

Many Christians are tithing faithfully and giving generously, yet they still wonder:

“Why hasn’t my financial breakthrough come?”

The answer is often found in this one neglected truth:

Where you tithe and sow matters.

Not every altar is equal. Not every ministry is good ground.

In this chapter, we will uncover the prophetic principle of spiritual soil, how churches and ministries either release or restrict harvests, and how to discern where to give for maximum multiplication.

The Parable of the Sower Reveals a Hidden Law

Jesus gave us the master principle in Luke 8:5–15.

“A sower went out to sow his seed... some fell by the wayside, some on rocky soil, some among thorns, and some on good ground...”

The only variable in that parable was not the seed, but the soil.

The seed was the same.

The sower was the same.

But the results were radically different.

- On rocky ground, the seed withered.
- Among thorns, it was choked.
- But on good ground, it brought forth thirty, sixty, and a hundredfold.

So it is with your giving.

If your tithe or offering is going to a place where the presence of God is absent, where the Word is compromised, or where the leadership is corrupt—then your seed is being choked or withered before it can produce.

Not Every Ministry Is Good Ground

This is a hard truth, but one that must be said.

There are ministries, churches, and spiritual leaders today that are:

- Spiritually dead
- Operating in rebellion
- Feeding the people poisoned doctrine
- Not under apostolic or prophetic authority
- Driven by greed, politics, or manipulation

Giving your seed into these places is like planting crops in a radioactive field. Nothing good grows.

Your seed is sacred. Don't scatter it just because someone carries a title or wears a collar.

Malachi 1:7-8 – God rebuked priests who offered defiled sacrifices.

If God didn't accept offerings on a polluted altar then, why would He now?

What Is Good Ground?

Good ground is anointed, fruitful, and spiritually alive.

Characteristics of Good Ground:

1. God's Presence is Evident – healings, salvations, and real transformation are happening.
2. The Word is Preached with Power and Truth – not watered down, not compromised.
3. The Leaders are Submitted and Accountable – not wolves in sheep's clothing.

4. The Vision is Kingdom-Focused – not entertainment-driven or carnal.
5. There is a Harvest Testimony – others are testifying of breakthroughs from sowing.

You know it's good ground when you feel the conviction to give, and you see the results.

Why Some Churches Block Financial Harvest

There are churches where sowing becomes a spiritual graveyard.

Here's why:

A. The Leadership is Not Aligned with God

Hosea 4:6 – “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.”

Some pastors don't teach tithing. Others abuse it. In both cases, the flow is blocked.

B. There's No Active Altar

No prayer. No oil. No fire.

Where there is no altar, there is no supernatural transaction. Offerings fall to the ground because there's no priestly or prophetic covering to lift them before God.

C. There's Hidden Sin or Rebellion in the House

If the leadership is in adultery, manipulation, or occult compromise, the altar becomes defiled. Offerings given there may invite backlash instead of blessing.

A cursed altar cannot bless your finances.

The Tithe Must Go to the House That Feeds You

Malachi 3:10

“Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house...”

The storehouse is the place that feeds you spiritually—not the one with the best choir, building, or popularity.

Ask yourself:

- Where am I being fed with revelation?
- Where do I receive prayer covering and guidance?
- Where is my spirit growing?

That is where your tithe should go.

Offerings Follow the Anointing

2 Kings 4:10 – The Shunammite woman gave to Elisha because she discerned he was a “holy man of God.”

She sowed into the anointing she wanted to receive from—and she birthed a miracle.

Offerings activate when you sow into the grace you want to partake of.

If you need:

- Healing, sow into a healing ministry.

- Financial breakthrough, sow into a prophetic financial altar.
- Deliverance, sow where demons are cast out.

Don't sow into dead wells. Find the fountain that flows—and sow upstream.

My Personal Journey: Why I Changed My Tithing Soil

There was a season in my early walk with God when I tithed faithfully but struggled constantly.

Then I asked the Holy Spirit, “Why is there no harvest?”

He answered, “You're tithing to a place I've left.”

That shook me. I was loyal to the church. But God had shifted—and I had to shift with Him.

I began tithing into an apostolic ministry where the power of God was moving—and my financial life exploded with supernatural favour, divine appointments, and unstoppable momentum.

Where your tithe goes determines what opens over your life.

How to Recognize a False Altar

Beware of ministries where:

- Money is demanded, not taught biblically
- Miracles are staged or manipulated
- Pastors live in secret sin and resist correction

- The focus is entirely on materialism without holiness

A false altar can look glamorous but carry a demonic undercurrent.

Ask the Holy Spirit to open your eyes. If you feel uneasy giving there, that's your answer.

How to Find Good Ground

Pray. Fast. Observe.

Then ask these questions:

- Is the Word rightly divided?
- Are lives being changed, not just entertained?
- Does the leadership operate with integrity?
- Is the altar alive with fire and presence?
- Have others testified about financial miracles from sowing there?

If yes—you've found good ground.

Final Thought: Don't Sow Into Soil That Can't Multiply You

You are not responsible for every need—but you are responsible for every seed.

Sow where your seed will be respected, prayed over, and prophetically activated.

Sow where the altar is alive.

Because when your seed hits good ground, your harvest will chase you down.

Prophetic Declaration

I declare I will never again waste seed on dead soil.

I discern the right altar, the right ministry, the right house.

My tithe will feed the house that feeds me.

My offerings will find fertile ground.

Every seed I sow will multiply and come back pressed down, shaken together, and running over.

I will not miss my harvest. In Jesus' name. Amen.

When Ministries Don't Tithe

“Speak to the Levites and say to them: ‘When you receive from the Israelites the tithe I give you as your inheritance, you must present a tenth of that tithe as the Lord’s offering... It will be reckoned to you as your own grain from the threshing floor... Offer the best and holiest part...’”

—Numbers 18:25–29

The Flow Must Not Be Broken

Tithing is not only an individual responsibility—it is a spiritual requirement for every ministry and church.

Many pastors teach about tithing, expect their members to give faithfully, and yet fail to honour the divine principle themselves.

When a ministry refuses to tithe, it sets itself up for financial drought, spiritual stagnation, and a blockage in divine supply.

The tithe is not just about money—it is about flow. It is about honour. It is about alignment.

And when the flow is broken from the top, everything beneath suffers.

The Priesthood Was Commanded to Tithe

We must return to the original instruction found in Numbers 18:25–29:

“Speak to the Levites and say to them: ‘When you receive from the Israelites the tithe I give you as your inheritance, you must present a tenth of that tithe as the Lord’s offering... It will be reckoned to you as your own grain from the threshing floor... Offer the best and holiest part...’”

This is known as the tithe of the tithe.

Even the Levites—who were the ministers and custodians of God’s altar—were not exempt from tithing. They were required to take a tenth from the tithe they received and offer it back to God.

This principle was not optional. It was a law of divine order.

If God required the priests to tithe, how much more today’s pastors, prophets, churches, and ministries?

What Happens When Ministries Don’t Tithe

When a ministry receives tithes and offerings from the people but does not tithe out of that income, several things begin to happen in the spirit:

A. The Spiritual Flow Becomes Contaminated

- There is no honour returned to God.
- The leadership is receiving without giving.
- The flow of grace and provision becomes stagnant.

Just like a blocked pipe restricts water, a ministry that doesn't tithe blocks the spiritual circulation.

B. The Church Begins to Experience Unusual Financial Warfare

- Unexpected expenses multiply.
- Promised donations disappear.
- Sudden repairs or staff issues swallow up resources.
- People stop giving freely—because the spiritual atmosphere becomes tight.

Why? Because the altar is not honouring the divine order.

C. Leaders Begin to Operate Under a Curse

Malachi 3:9 says:

“You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing Me—the whole nation of you!”

When ministers rob God, they bring a curse upon the whole nation—that includes the church they oversee.

Even if the people tithe faithfully, the corporate flow will be compromised if leadership refuses to tithe upward.

Tithing Restores the Flow of Honour

The tithe is not just about provision; it is about honour and divine transaction.

When a ministry tithes, it acknowledges that its growth, increase, and harvest come from above.

In today's New Testament order, this means:

- Ministries should tithe to the priestly and prophetic offices God has assigned to oversee them.
- Apostolic and prophetic coverings must also be aligned in tithing upwards to their oversight.

This is how flow is maintained.

Malachi 1:6

“A son honours his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, where is My honour?”

When a church receives but does not tithe, it breaks the honour chain and invites spiritual drought.

How to Know If a Ministry Is Tithing

You can discern whether a church is truly tithing by looking at:

- The longevity and consistency of financial provision
- Whether the leadership lives under constant debt and crisis

- Whether there is prophetic freshness and divine favour in the atmosphere

Ministries that tithe regularly:

- See supernatural supply and provision.
- Move under open heaven and divine instruction.
- Maintain clear prophetic flow and accurate spiritual alignment.

My Personal Experience as a Ministry Leader

There was a season in our ministry when funds were coming in, but it felt like they were leaking through our hands.

The Lord rebuked me.

“You are receiving tithes but not honouring Me with a tithe of the tithe. You’ve allowed the flow to become one-sided.”

That day, I made a decision:

- Every time we receive the tithes of the people, we immediately take 10% and present it to the Lord on the altar, tithing it into the prophetic covering God connected us to.

From that moment, something shifted:

- Unexpected debts were cancelled.
- Large partnerships came out of nowhere.
- Divine favour began to flood our church from all directions.

Tithing as a ministry restored our financial flow and reopened the heavens over our people.

Prophetic Insight: The River Principle

In Ezekiel 47, the prophet sees a river flowing from the altar.

That river brings healing and life wherever it flows.

But when the river is blocked at the source—when the altar is not functioning properly—everything downstream dries up.

A ministry that does not tithe becomes like a dried-up riverbed. The presence of God retreats. The anointing becomes mechanical. People stop experiencing breakthrough. Why? Because the altar is dishonouring the Source.

The Corporate Curse vs. Corporate Blessing

When ministries do not tithe:

- They block blessings not only for themselves but for the people they serve.
- They open the door for corporate backlash, confusion, and infighting.
- The spirit of poverty and scarcity begins to affect departments, leaders, and volunteers.

But when ministries tithe:

- There is supernatural multiplication.
- Partners and members testify of financial miracles.

- The house is filled with oil, peace, and prophetic power.

Who Should Receive the Ministry Tithe?

Just like the Levites gave their tithe to the High Priest (Numbers 18), today's ministries should tithe to:

- Their apostolic or prophetic covering
- The spiritual father or mentor that feeds and watches over them
- The house or altar from which they draw strength and instruction

Tithing down maintains function.

Tithing upward maintains flow.

How to Begin Tithing as a Ministry

If you're a pastor or leader and your church or ministry has not been tithing properly, start today:

1. Repent – Ask God to forgive the oversight and restore the flow.
2. Designate 10% of all income (tithes and offerings received).
3. Sow it into your covering – the person or altar assigned by God to watch over you.
4. Do it regularly – weekly or monthly without fail.
5. Speak over the tithe as a priest would, releasing blessing over your people.

Final Thought: The Flow Follows Honour

When ministries honour God with the tithe of the tithe:

- The flow becomes pure.
- The altar becomes powerful.
- The people begin to prosper.
- The house becomes full of divine activity.

But when they don't, the entire system suffers.

The tithe is holy—not just in the hands of individuals, but in the hands of the house of God.

Prophetic Declaration

I declare that every broken flow is being restored.

As a leader, I will honour the Lord with the tithe of the tithe.

My ministry will never operate under a closed heaven.

The altar I oversee will be drenched in prophetic oil.

My people will prosper, because our house is in divine order.

In Jesus' name, amen.

How to Water Your Seed for Maximum Return

A Seed Is Not Enough

Sowing a seed is powerful. But it is only the beginning of your harvest process. Many people give a tithe or offering and then wonder why they don't see an immediate return. What they don't realize is that every seed must be watered.

Just as a natural farmer doesn't throw seeds in the soil and walk away, a spiritual farmer must also nurture their seed—through prayer, prophetic confession, gratitude, and intentional alignment.

The seed unlocks access, but watering the seed determines the size and speed of the harvest.

The Power of Spiritual Watering

Watering your seed is the act of:

- Praying over what you've sown

- Speaking faith-filled declarations
- Thanking God in advance for the harvest
- Surrounding your seed with Scripture and praise

It's not just what you give, but how you speak over it and walk in expectation that makes the difference.

1 Corinthians 3:6

"I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase."

Even Paul recognized the divine principle: sowing alone is incomplete. Someone must water.

Confession Activates the Harvest

Jesus taught that the words you speak are spirit and life (John 6:63). Your seed responds to your confession.

When you tithe or give an offering, begin to say things like:

- "This seed will not die in the ground."
- "I command a 100-fold return."
- "The heavens are open over my life."
- "This seed is breaking generational poverty."
- "I will see the fruit of this offering in this season."

Confession is the voice of faith that calls forth the invisible into the visible.

Gratitude Is the Rain That Draws the Increase

Many sow a seed and then fall into murmuring or doubt. This short-circuits the process.

Gratitude is a prophetic signal to heaven that you believe. It is spiritual rain that softens the soil and prepares the harvest.

Philippians 4:6

“...with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.”

Declare often:

- “Lord, I thank You that my harvest is on the way.”
- “Thank You that my seed is speaking in heavenly places.”
- “Thank You that I will not lack nor suffer famine.”

Gratitude is one of the fastest ways to water your seed and accelerate your harvest.

Use Scripture to Surround Your Seed

When a farmer wants to protect a seed from birds or pests, they cover the ground, build fences, and guard the land.

Spiritually, you must cover your seed with Scripture. The Word becomes a divine fence that keeps out the devourer and nourishes the seed to grow.

Here are powerful Scriptures to speak daily over your seed:

- Luke 6:38 – “Give, and it shall be given to you, good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over...”

- Malachi 3:10 – “Bring the whole tithe... and see if I will not open the floodgates of heaven.”
- Psalm 126:6 – “He who sows in tears shall reap with songs of joy.”
- 2 Corinthians 9:10 – “He who supplies seed to the sower... will increase your store of seed.”

Surround your seed with the promises of God, and it will never return void.

The Curse of Stinginess After Sowing

One of the hidden enemies of the harvest is stinginess—especially after a breakthrough seed has been planted.

Some sow generously in one moment, but then:

- Stop giving.
- Withhold their heart.
- Close their hands and operate in fear.

This inconsistency can block the flow that was just opened.

Proverbs 11:24–25

“One gives freely, yet grows all the richer; another withholds what he should give, and only suffers want.”

The curse of stinginess includes:

- Financial delays.
- Relationship strain.

- Missed opportunities.
- Famine in creativity, favour, and increase.

Remember: a farmer who only sows once will reap once. But those who develop a lifestyle of watering keep the cycle flowing.

Prophetic Acts That Water the Seed

Besides confession, Scripture, and gratitude, there are other prophetic ways to water your seed:

A. Journaling Your Expectation

- Write down what you sowed and what you're believing God for.
- Revisit the journal weekly to record breakthroughs.

B. Praying in the Spirit Over Your Seed

- Every time you pray in tongues, you're sending supernatural nutrients to your seed.

C. Placing the Offering Envelope on the Altar (Physically or Digitally)

- Whether it's a physical envelope or a digital screenshot, placing it before the altar daily as a point of contact keeps it spiritually active.

Your Words Are Rain or Drought

Your words have prophetic power to either activate or suffocate your seed.

When you complain:

- You create spiritual drought.
- You uproot what you planted.

When you declare and decree:

- You release spiritual rain.
- You invite divine acceleration.

Make it your habit to speak life every day over what you've sown.

Your Seed Needs Atmosphere

Just like in the natural, the atmosphere around the seed matters:

- A fearful, bitter, or negative environment chokes the harvest.
- A faith-filled, prophetic, and thankful environment supercharges the seed.

Surround your finances with:

- Prophetic preaching
- Faith-filled friendships
- Testimony-rich conversations

- Expectation and peace

Your atmosphere matters. Create the kind of spiritual climate where miracles can grow.

My Experience: When I Started Watering

There was a season in my life when I gave faithfully but saw little return. The Lord said, “You’re sowing, but you’re silent. The seed is in the ground, but there’s no rain.”

That day, I started confessing daily over my tithe:

- “This seed will unlock new doors.”
- “My enemies are being scattered because of this tithe.”
- “I command hundredfold return.”

Within weeks, unexpected breakthroughs came. Favour opened. Clients returned. Closed doors swung open.

Watering my seed wasn’t just about giving again—it was about faith in action through words.

Final Thought: The Harvest Is Voice-Activated

Your harvest is voice-activated. You must command it, water it, praise over it, and expect it.

Many believers sow once and grow frustrated when nothing happens immediately. But the greatest harvests are nurtured. Faith must be maintained. Praise must go ahead of the rain.

Don't let your seed rot in silence. Water it with Word, worship, and warfare.

Prophetic Declarations

Say these daily after you sow:

- My seed is working.
- I water my tithe with faith and expectation.
- I shall not die in drought—I live under an open heaven.
- Every seed I sow multiplies in Jesus' name.
- I'm not just a giver—I'm a harvester.
- The devourer is rebuked. My increase is protected.
- I speak Scripture over every pound, every cheque, every offering I've ever given.
- My giving history is a harvest prophecy.
- I declare the ground is wet with favour.
- My harvest shall not be delayed!

Living the Covenant Cycle

Prosperity Is Not an Event—It's a Covenant

Many people treat breakthrough as a random event or a result of luck. But in the Kingdom of God, financial dominion is not a lottery—it's the result of living within a divine cycle. That cycle is not seasonal or occasional—it is covenantal.

Just as the earth operates in seedtime and harvest, God's financial system functions through a cycle:

Tithe → Offering → First Fruit → Harvest → Repeat

Those who understand this flow live under a perpetual open heaven, moving from increase to increase, even in famine. This chapter is your invitation to live in rhythm with heaven.

God's Financial Blueprint Was Never Broken

From Genesis to Revelation, God has never abandoned His original system of multiplication and abundance. He simply requires man to stay in position.

The tithe keeps us in covenant.

The offering releases us into abundance.

The first fruit sets the tone for the entire year or season.

The harvest is God's faithful reward.

And the repetition of the cycle ensures sustained dominion.

When you stop cycling, you stop flowing.

The Four Elements of the Covenant Cycle

1. The Tithe: The Covenant Connector

The tithe belongs to God. It's the first 10% of all increase. Tithing activates God's protection, rebukes devourers, and opens the windows of heaven.

Malachi 3:10–11

"Bring all the tithes into the storehouse... and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven..."

Tithing is not a money issue—it's a covenant decision. It declares: "God is my Source, and I return what is His."

2. The Offering: The Voluntary Seed of Expansion

Offerings are freewill gifts given in love, gratitude, or response to revelation. They are not a legal obligation like the tithe, but they carry exponential reward.

2 Corinthians 9:6–7

“Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly... God loves a cheerful giver.”

Offerings are what determine how much you grow, and how fast you reap. Your tithe opens the door, but your offering builds the house.

3. The First Fruit: The Divine Pattern Setter

First fruits are the first of a new thing—first pay cheque, first bonus, first harvest, first sale, firstborn, etc.

Proverbs 3:9–10

“Honor the Lord with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops; then your barns will be filled...”

When you give the first to God, the rest becomes blessed. You’re declaring, “Before I do anything else, I honour You.”

This triggers favour, order, and supernatural provision for the remainder of the season.

4. The Harvest: God’s Guaranteed Response

When the covenant cycle is complete—tithe, offering, first fruit—harvest is inevitable.

Galatians 6:9

“Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest...”

Harvest comes in many forms:

- Unexpected income
- Business expansion
- Debt cancellation
- Favour in interviews
- Restoration of stolen wealth

The cycle guarantees harvest, but it also requires stewardship, patience, and consistency.

Why Many Believers Experience Stagnation

The moment someone tithes but withholds offerings, the flow is restricted. If they sow offerings but never honour the first fruit, the alignment is incomplete.

If they receive harvest but don't return to tithe, they violate the cycle.

A broken cycle equals a broken flow.

That's why some people experience moments of breakthrough—but not a lifestyle of dominion.

Keep the Cycle Going—Even After the Break-through

One of the gravest errors believers make is treating the harvest as the end. But in the Kingdom, harvest is not the conclusion—it's the reset point.

You are meant to:

- Tithe from the harvest
- Offer again in worship
- Present a new first fruit when the next level begins

This is the kingdom rhythm. Every miracle you receive should sponsor your next seed.

Deuteronomy 8:18

“But remember the Lord your God, for it is He who gives you the ability to produce wealth...”

He gives power to get wealth—not just to enrich you, but to establish His covenant. You are a partner in a perpetual system.

The Covenant Cycle in Real Life

Here's a real-life cycle example:

1. You earn £1,000 – You tithe £100.
2. You give a freewill offering of £50.
3. You receive your first bonus – You give it as first fruit.
4. Doors open for a new business opportunity.

5. You earn £10,000 – You tithe £1,000, offer again, and continue.

This is how wealth multiplies without sorrow. It becomes impossible to stagnate because you are walking in a heaven-backed rhythm.

The Danger of Interruption

Each element of the cycle protects the next:

- Tithing protects the offering.
- Offering creates the space for first fruit.
- First fruit sanctifies the remainder.
- Harvest funds the next tithe.

If you stop giving at any level, you forfeit the next round. Just like a farmer who skips a season of sowing, no seed = no harvest.

The Lifestyle of Financial Dominion

Financial dominion is not about “getting rich”—it’s about being established. It means:

- Your income is consistent.
- Your doors remain open.
- You hear divine instruction.
- You rise above famine.
- You move from renting to owning.
- Your giving doesn’t stop because your faith doesn’t stop.

Living the covenant cycle means you always have seed, always have harvest, and always walk under divine cover.

Prophetic Activation: Declare the Cycle

Say this aloud every morning for the next 7 days:

I live under divine economy.

I am a covenant tither.

I give offerings from a cheerful heart.

I honour God with my first fruits.

I reap supernatural harvests in every season.

I do not eat my seed—I sow it and water it.

The covenant cycle will not be broken in my life.

I walk in financial dominion now and forever, in Jesus' name.

My Testimony: I Kept the Cycle Alive

There were times when I had nothing but coins, yet I tithed. Times I received unexpected payments and gave the entire amount as first fruit.

The world called me foolish.

But suddenly, I was no longer in debt. I went from jobless to overflow. My giving triggered divine remembrance—favour with strangers, contracts, real estate opportunities, ministry expansion.

The cycle works because God is faithful to His covenant.

Final Thought: Don't Break the Chain

Your tithe connects you.

Your offering expands you.

Your first fruit blesses your season.

Your harvest sponsors your future.

Keep the chain unbroken. Live in rhythm with God. The covenant cycle is your spiritual irrigation system—if you maintain the flow, you will never be dry again.

Conclusion

There comes a moment when revelation is no longer just knowledge—it becomes a lifestyle. That moment, Prophet, is now. You’ve walked through these 24 chapters not just to study a subject, but to embrace a divine system that changes destinies.

This book was never meant to just teach you about tithing, offerings, and first fruits. It was written to awaken the covenant keeper inside of you.

The Difference Between Survivors and Dominion-Walkers

Survivors in the Kingdom know how to cry out in famine.

But those who walk in dominion—they don’t just survive, they flourish, even in drought. Why? Because they have made the covenant cycle their lifestyle.

They tithe without negotiation.

They sow without hesitation.

They honour the first fruit without delay.

They expect harvest without apology.

They don't live by emotion—they live by divine structure.

The Greatest Prosperity Is Obedience

The real blessing isn't in the money. It's in the obedience.

Obedience to tithe opened the heavens for Abraham.

Obedience to offer unlocked a miracle for the widow in Zarephath.

Obedience to give first fruits sanctified Israel's future.

And it will do the same for you.

Obedience is what brings you into alignment—and alignment is what causes increase to find you without striving.

The Tithe Is a Foundation, Not a Finish Line

Tithing is not the end of giving—it's the beginning. It's the entry point into financial covenant with God. Those who stop at the tithe limit themselves. Those who add offerings and honour first fruits are the ones who become financial priests and kings.

You can't carry a Joseph-sized vision with Cain-sized obedience.

A Final Word to the Reader: Don't Let This Just Be a Book

Books can be read and forgotten. But covenants are meant to be kept.

Don't close this final page and go back to guessing what to give. Don't return to inconsistent obedience, casual sowing, or emotional giving.

Make a vow before God today:

"I will never treat the holy portion as common again."

"I will tithe with joy."

"I will sow as the Spirit leads."

"I will honour You with my first."

"I will keep the covenant cycle alive."

Prophetic Declarations to Seal This Journey

Speak these words aloud:

1. I am a covenant-keeper, not a consumer.
2. I live under an open heaven.
3. My tithe rebukes the devourer.
4. My offerings unlock new dimensions.
5. My first fruits sanctify my season.
6. I will never beg or borrow—I will rise and overflow.
7. I sow into good ground, and I reap a hundredfold.
8. I do not follow trends—I follow covenant.
9. I will never break the cycle of divine increase.

10. My hands are blessed, my house is blessed, and my legacy is blessed.

Final Invitation: Step Into Covenant Partnership

Now that you know the truth, it's time to live it.

If you've never fully tithed before—start now.

If you've held back from sowing—repent and return.

If you've never presented your first fruit—make it your priority.

And if you are part of a ministry, a business, or a household—lead them by example.

Covenant is personal. But the blessing is generational.

Thank You For Taking This Journey

From my heart to yours—I bless you. I thank God for your hunger, your humility, and your honour.

And now, I charge you:

Go and teach others.

Go and walk it out.

Go and dominate financially—not by worldly schemes, but by heaven's system.

Your days of financial struggle can end today.

Your covenant journey begins now.

Dedication

This book is dedicated to every believer who refused to stay in lack, to every man and woman who searched for financial truth in the midst of famine, and to every soul who dared to believe that God's covenant still works today.

I dedicate these pages to:

- The faithful remnant who tithed even when it didn't make sense.
- The silent givers who sowed in tears but will reap in joy.
- The young dreamers who are just discovering that money is not their source—God is.
- The spiritual pioneers who will rise from poverty to prosperity not by shortcuts, but by covenant.
- And to every pastor, leader, and ministry team who will now teach the truth boldly, without fear or apology.

But above all, I dedicate this book to the Great High Priest, Jesus Christ, who receives our tithe, who is the firstborn among many brethren, and who is the embodiment of Heaven's giving system.

May every word in this book become a doorway to your financial deliverance.

May every seed you sow from this moment forward become a weapon in your hands and a memorial before God.

Let the altars of famine be broken.

Let the covenant keepers rise.

And let the blessing of the Lord rest upon your house forever.

Invitation to Sow a Covenant Seed

Now that you have finished this book, something in your spirit has shifted. This wasn't just a teaching—it was a divine encounter. And now heaven is watching to see what you will do with the truth you've received.

Throughout these pages, you've learned about:

- The tithe that opens the heavens
- The offering that activates abundance
- The first fruit that sanctifies your seasons
- And the covenant cycle that sustains divine increase

Now it's your moment to respond—not emotionally, but prophetically.

Sow a Covenant Seed.

A seed that says:

“I will never return to ignorance.”

“I align myself with God’s economic system.”

“I seal this revelation in my spirit and in my finances.”

Why This Seed Matters

This is not just any seed—it’s a prophetic covenant transaction.

You are saying to God:

“As I act on this word, I expect Your covenant to speak for me.”

“I refuse to live on the world’s economy—I step into Kingdom wealth.”

Your seed may be:

- A first fruit from a new job
- A thanksgiving offering for breakthrough
- A sacrificial seed to end lack once and for all
- Or a memorial seed to unlock long-awaited answers

Whatever the Spirit leads you to give, give it intentionally and prophetically.

Seal It with Faith and Confession

Before you sow, speak these words aloud:

“This is my covenant seed.

I sow it in faith.

Covenant Wealth

I sow it in revelation.

I sow it in alignment.

Let this seed speak for my finances, my family, and my future.

I break every curse of lack.

I activate supernatural harvest.

And I declare: I will never be broke another day in my life, in Jesus' name."

Where to Sow Your Seed

You can sow your covenant seed directly at:

<https://prophetcclimate.co.uk/offering>

This is good ground—a ministry that teaches the truth, operates in the prophetic, and is raising up covenant keepers across the globe.

If you're sowing by bank or mobile money, and it's a vow to fulfill later, make sure to include the words:

"Vow or Paying by Bank or Mobile Money – Total: [Amount]"

So that it will be properly recorded and honored at the altar.

Final Prophetic Word

Your seed is not leaving your life—it's entering your next season.

Dr Climate Wiseman

This is not the end of your financial struggle.

This is the beginning of your covenant success story.

Go now, and sow your covenant seed. And watch what God does next.
